Literature Into Film Theory And Practical Approaches:

Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn't as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader's own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Practical Approaches to Teaching Film Rachel S. Ritterbusch, 2020-07-24 Rachel Ritterbusch's Practical Approaches to Teaching Film is a collection of essays focusing on the use of film in settings ranging from an introductory film class to an upper division Women's Studies course Drawing on their experience in the classroom contributors to this anthology show how movies can be used to promote critical thinking create an awareness of the male gaze challenge dominant ideology and unmask the constructedness of film This volume treats a wide variety of film texts from box office hits like The Da Vinci Code to underappreciated art films such as Susan Streitfeld's Female Perversions from P p le Moko and other French classics to more contemporary francophone works like Chaos and Rosetta from self reflexive films that interrogate the act of filmmaking itself to those that draw attention to the phallogocentric nature of cinematic apparatus Common to all these essays is the belief that if used judiciously film can be a valuable pedagogical tool Aimed both at those currently teaching film and those wishing to do so this volume provides practical support in the form of sample syllabi assignments and a glossary of film terms The Oxford Handbook of Adaptation Studies Thomas M. Leitch, 2017 This collection of forty new essays written by the leading scholars in adaptation studies and distinguished contributors from outside the field is the most comprehensive volume on adaptation ever published Written to appeal alike to specialists in adaptation scholars in allied fields and general readers it hearkens back to the foundations of adaptation studies a century and more ago surveys its ferment of activity over the past twenty years and looks forward to the future It considers the very different problems in adapting the classics from the Bible to Frankenstein to Philip Roth and the commons from online mashups and remixes to adult movies It surveys a dizzying range of adaptations around the world from Latin American telenovelas to Czech cinema from Hong Kong comics to Classics Illustrated from Bollywood to zombies and explores the ways media as different as radio opera popular song and videogames have handled adaptation Going still further it examines the relations between adaptation and such intertextual practices as translation illustration prequels sequels remakes intermediality and transmediality The volume s contributors consider the similarities and differences between adaptation and history adaptation and performance adaptation and revision and textual and biological adaptation casting an appreciative but critical eye on the theory and practice of adaptation scholars and occasionally each other The Oxford Handbook of Adaptation Studies offers specific suggestions for how to read teach create and write about adaptations in order to prepare for a world in which adaptation already ubiquitous is likely to become ever more important

Understanding Film Theory Ruth Doughty,Christine Etherington-Wright,2017-08-30 This essential core textbook provides an approachable and extensive introduction to film theory written by two highly experienced senior lecturers Bringing a fresh contemporary and accessible approach to what is often perceived to be a challenging and old fashioned area of film studies that requires time and effort to grasp the text illustrates why theory is important and demonstrates how it can be applied in a meaningful way The book s sixteen chapters are clear and comprehensive and provide an insight into the main areas of debate using clear definitions and explaining complex ideas succinctly The ideal entry point for any student studying film the book is designed for use on courses on film theory on undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes within film cinema media and cultural studies New to this Edition An expanded introduction plus a new chapter looking at Adaptation Contemporary case studies exploring popular and topical films such as The Hunger Games 2012 Blue is the Warmest Colour 2013 and The Lego Movie 2014 An expanded introduction plus a new chapter looking at Adaptation Additional genre based case study on the British Gangster film Additional actor basedcase study on Ryan Gosling A greater focus throughout on the relevance of film theory to students undertaking practical film degrees and units

Adaptation Studies Jorgen Bruhn,Anne Gjelsvik,Eirik Frisvold Hanssen,2013-05-09 Extending the boundaries of contemporary adaptation studies this book brings together leading international scholars to survey new directions in the field Re thinking the key questions at the heart of the discipline Adaptation Studies New Directions New Challenges explores a wide range of perspectives and case studies in cross media transformation Topics covered include The history of adaptation studies Theories of adaptation Adaptations in film literature radio and historical sources What is an original text

Rewatching on the Point of the Cinematic Index Allen H. Redmon,2022-08-24 Rewatching on the Point of the

Cinematic Index offers a reassessment of the cinematic index as it sits at the intersection of film studies trauma studies and adaptation studies Author Allen H Redmon argues that far too often scholars imagine the cinematic index to be nothing more than an acknowledgment that the lens based camera captures and brings to the screen a reality that existed before the camera When cinema's indexicality is so narrowly defined the entire nature of film is called into question the moment film no longer relies on a lens based camera The presence of digital technologies seemingly strips cinema of its indexical standing This volume pushes for a broader understanding of the cinematic index by returning to the early discussions of the index in film studies and the more recent discussions of the index in other digital arts Bolstered by the insights these discussions can offer the volume looks to replace what might be best deemed a diminished concept of the cinematic index with a series of more complex cinematic indices the impoverished index the indefinite index the intertextual index and the imaginative index The central argument of this book is that these more complex indices encourage spectators to enter a process of ongoing adaptation of the reality they see on the screen and that it is on the point of these indices that the most significant instances of rewatching movies occur Examining such films as John Lee Hancock's Saving Mr Banks 2013 Richard Linklater's oeuvre Paul Greengrass's United 93 2006 Oliver Stone's World Trade Center 2006 Stephen Daldry's Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close 2011 and Christopher Nolan's Dunkirk 2017 Inception 2010 and Memento 2000 Redmon demonstrates that the cinematic index invites spectators to enter a process of ongoing adaptation

The Literature/Film Reader James M. Welsh, Peter Lev, 2007-08-14 From examinations of Francis Ford Coppola's Apocalypse Now to Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo The Literature Film Reader Issues of Adaptation covers a wide range of films adapted from other sources The first section presents essays on the hows and whys of adaptation studies and subsequent sections highlight films adapted from a variety of sources including classic and popular literature drama biography and memoir The last section offers a new departure for adaptation studies suggesting that films about history often a separate category of film study can be seen as adaptations of records of the past The anthology concludes with speculations about the future of adaptation studies Several essays provide detailed analyses of films in some cases discussing more than one adaptation of a literary or dramatic source such as The Manchurian Candidate The Quiet American and Romeo and Juliet Other works examined include Moby Dick The House of Mirth Dracula and Starship Troopers demonstrating the breadth of material considered for this anthology Although many of the essays appeared in Literature Film Quarterly more than half are original contributions Chosen for their readability these essays avoid theoretical jargon as much as possible For this reason alone this collection should be of interest to not only cinema scholars but to anyone interested in films and their source material Ultimately The Literature Film Reader Issues of Adaptation provides an excellent overview of this critical aspect of film studies
