Decolonizing and Indigenizing Visions of Educational Leadership Njoki N. Wane, Kimberly L. Todd, Coly Chau, Heather Watts, 2022-11-21 This edited collection centres the reclamation of global counter and Indigenous knowledges epistemologies ontologies axiologies and cosmovisions that have the capacity to create new educational leadership frameworks that chart courses to visions beyond the current oppressive systems of education Educational Leadership as a Culturally-Constructed Practice Jane Wilkinson, Laurette Bristol, 2017-07-20 This edited book collection disrupts received notions of educational leadership culture and diversity as currently portrayed in practice and theory It draws on compelling studies of educational leadership from the global north and south as well as from a range of ethnic religious and gendered perspectives and critical research approaches In so doing the book powerfully challenges contemporary leadership discourses of diversity that reproduce essentialising leadership practices binary divisions and asymmetrical power relations The various chapters contest and move beyond exhortations for leadership in increasingly diverse societies revealing through their rich portraits of the hybridity of leadership practice the shallowness of diversity discourses that are framed as something we the culturally homogenous leader do to heterogenous others The volume is more than critique Instead it offers readers new directions and possibilities through which to understand theorise and practise educational leadership in the twenty first century In portraying leading as a relational practice in contexts of cultural hybridity Blackmore this volume it extends critical theories for and of leadership practice examining the intersectionality between leadership and a range of social categories and challenging notions of leadership as a singular construct Compelling research narratives reveal educational leadership practice as nuanced temporal site specific and prefigured by traditions and cultural understandings that reach beyond a simplification of educational leadership as understood through unitary lenses of race gender or ethnicity This book is essential reading for academics and students of educational leadership and management as well as administrators Connections ,2003 Pennsylvania Educational Leadership ,2005 Resources in Education ,1998

Feminist Perspectives on Contemporary Educational Leadership Kay Fuller, 2021-11-29 This timely book explores how various feminist perspectives fruitfully explain women s experience of educational leadership drawing on a contemporary conceptualisation of fourth wave feminism that is intersectional and inclusive The book asks which and whose feminist theory is used to explain gender and feminism in educational leadership management and administration ELMA the scholar s the research participant s or a combination of the two in the co construction of knowledge from an intersectional feminist perspective It conceptualises intersectional and inclusive feminist perspectives on educational leadership theorising research through a Black British feminist perspective a gender and Islamic perspective and a queer theory perspective depending on the self identification of participants It explores digital feminism and men s pro feminism The book identifies feminist leadership praxis as a focus for future research and explores how leaders can draw on funds of knowledge identity cultural wealth and lead and educate diverse populations of students Highlighting the importance of intersectional feminist perspectives in ELMA the book will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of inclusive educational leadership and management gender studies and feminism Demystifying Educational Leadership and Administration in the Middle East and North Africa Khalid Arar, Selahattin Turan, Sedat Gümüş, Abdellatif Sellami, Julia Mahfouz, 2023-12-01 This volume explores how educational leadership and administration ELA is constructed in the Middle East and North African region MENA and charts the development of ELA as a discipline Against the backdrop of rapid growth and interest in the educational restructuring educational reforms policy and leadership landscape of the region chapters investigate issues concerned with the production and utilization of knowledge in the field and analyse the future of ELA in relation to the educational policies and practices in MENA countries Featuring a broad range of geographically dispersed specialist contributors involved in leadership policy and administration the volume ultimately sheds light on this little researched area of study to demystify common tropes and misunderstandings surrounding ELA in the MENA region This book will be of use to scholars researchers and postgraduate students involved with international and comparative education higher education management and education policy and politics more broadly Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W. English, 2009 Educational Leadership Spencer J. Maxcy, 1991-09-23 Underlying the controversy surrounding educational reform and the crisis facing American public education today is the question of leadership Who is to exercise it and what direction should it take In his systematic redefinition of educational leadership Spencer J Maxcy develops a democratic participatory model of leadership at all levels Drawing on the work of philosophers from John Dewey and William James to contemporary neo pragmatists he explores the nature of shared leadership and its potential to foster socio cultural reform through schooling Maxcy begins with a review of leadership theory and the ways in which competing theories continue to affect education New directions in research are assessed particularly the shift away from treating educational leadership as a form of management rather than a relational phenomenon In examining the implications of a philosophy of democratic leadership the author takes his inquiry into practical areas including the empowerment of teachers the sharing of leadership among teachers and administrators the preparation of educational leaders for a postmodern era and the development of leadership qualities in children The current trend toward decentralization of schooling is discussed in light of his proposed model together with the demand for moral vision in education and the need for creativity as an integral part of the educational process Making a convincing case for the distribution of leadership among the administration teachers students and the larger community this book will be of interest to anyone concerned with critical issues in education from policy makers and educators to the informed general reader
