Martin Amis, 2026-08-25 A wickedly funny grotesquely exaggerated portrait of modern Britain as seen through the rise of one of Amis's most outrageous characters In the brutal concrete landscape of Diston Town teenage Des Pepperdine is doing his best to stay invisible reading poetry avoiding trouble and nursing a dangerous secret But his guardian Lionel Asbo is a ferocious presence a pit bull breeding tabloid devouring career criminal with a gift for violence and a hatred of books When Lionel wins the lottery from inside prison and becomes an overnight millionaire Des is dragged along for the ride caught between survival loyalty and the faint hope of something better With savage humor and a Dickensian eye for the grotesque Lionel Asbo State of England captures a nation enthralled by celebrity and excess It's a darkly comic portrait of a young man coming of age in a culture that confuses notoriety with success and a meditation on the quiet courage it takes to resist chaos from within your own home The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature Richard

Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers. Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it. The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability. This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory. Locating Classed Subjectivities Simon Lee, 2022-05-30 Locating Classed Subjectivities explores representations of social class in British fiction through the lens of spatial theory and analysis. By analyzing a range of class conscious texts from the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries the collection provides an overview of the way British writers mobilized spatial aesthetics as a means to comment on the intricacies of social class. In doing so the collection delineates aesthetic strategies of representation in British writing tracing the development of literary forms while considering how authors mobilized innovative spatial metaphors to better express contingent social and economic realities. Ranging in coverage from early nineteenth century narratives of disease to contemporary writing on the working class millennial Locating Classed Subjectivities offers new perspectives on literary techniques and political intentions exploring the way class is parsed and critiqued through British writing across three centuries. As such the project responds to Nigel Thrift and Peter Williams's claim that literary and cultural production serves as a particularly rich yet unexamined access point by which to comprehend the way space and social class intersect. Nicola Barker Nicola Barker, Ben Masters, Daniel Marc Janes, Len Platt, Ginette Carpenter, Beccy Kennedy, Christopher Vardy, Huw Marsh, Alice Bennett, Eleanor Byrne, 2020-10-20 Nicola Barker's exuberant novels here receive the scholarly attention they deserve in a collection of essays which moves chronologically through her
