Linguistic Tools for Written Communication Reshmi Dutta-Flanders, 2024-06-28 This book uses a linguistically and stylistically grounded analytical approach to written discourse to explain the patterns that appear when evaluating academic essays and to explore the potential of nativized linguistic tendencies as strategies in written communication As linguistic behaviour these strategies constitute a multinorm and the author argues that comprehensive awareness of a written norm in a multilingual context is not about language rules for ironing out inequalities but rather about varieties of linguistic practices that construct alternative strategies and patterns in written discourse The book combines topics such as study skills English as a Second Language and English for Academic Purposes but grounds them within a World Englishes and syntactic paradigm exploring why students write in a certain way due to their linguistic instincts as well as helping students to see practical examples of what this means from the immediate perspective of sentence construction It will be of interest to scholars of Education Language and Linguistics Study Skills EAP and World Englishes as well as students across disciplines who are encountering the academic essay as a form for the first time

Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline-Specific Skill in Higher Education Ezza, El-Sadig Y., Drid, Touria, 2019-12-27 It is now held that writing influences and is influenced by the discipline where it occurs The representations that writers employ to produce and comprehend texts are said to be sensitive to the specificities of their disciplinary discourse communities This exposes writers to divergent disciplinary demands and expectations on what counts as good and appropriate writing in terms of generic structure discourse features and stylistic preferences reflecting dissimilar practices Because of such exigencies academic writing seems at times to be very challenging especially for novice scholars Thus any attempt to perceive the function of academic writing in higher education or to evaluate its quality should not discard the shaping force of the disciplines Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline Specific Skill in Higher Education is a critical scholarly resource that examines the role of writing within academic circles and the disciplinary practices of writing in scholastic environments The book will also explore the particular difficulties that confront writers in the disciplines as well as the endeavors of educational institutions to develop discipline specific writing
