Lincoln's broad range of cases expanded his sense of the economic and social forces changing America. Showcasing courthouse markers, county line markers, Looking for Lincoln Wayside Exhibits and numerous other points of interest, this unique guidebook invites travelers to visit the towns where Lincoln practiced law, view the terrain that is much the same now as when Lincoln passed and perhaps experience a sense of Lincoln's presence in those quiet out-of-the-way places. Looking for Lincoln H A Freeman, 2020-11-25. After a time machine malfunctions, history's greatest heroes and villains are set loose on the small town of Antiquity Hill. Now it's up to the kids of the History Hounds Detective Agency, Zahra, Austin, Carlos, and Georgia, to follow the clues, find the historical figures, and send them back to the past. The History Hounds is a book series that uses humor, mystery, and fast-paced storytelling to introduce 7-11 year olds to the people, events, and excitement of world history. In Looking for Lincoln, the History Hounds learn that a tall bearded man with a stovepipe hat has been seen sneaking around town. Could it be the 16th president of the United States? With the help of an eccentric old lady who's obsessed with pink flamingos and a chihuahua named Mr. Sparkles, a dusty phonebook from the local library, and a young lawyer, the kids must race against the clock to find President Lincoln and send him back to the 1800s before it's too late. Looking for Lincoln is not only a page-turning primer on the life and times of Abraham Lincoln, but also introduces young readers to the larger-than-life characters they'll come to know and love in The History Hounds series. Learning history has never been so much fun.

Abraham Lincoln as a Man Among Men (Classic Reprint) Guy Lynn Sumner, 2017-12-19. Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln as a Man Among Men. If I should carve a Lincoln, I would take No snow-white marble, but a rugged rock. One that the frosts of Winter could not break. That had withstood the ocean's thundering shock. Some solid rock amid the shifting sands. Unmoved by storm, unaltered by the wave. Some granite giant that forever stands. To mark the harbor with a light to save. If I should carve a Lincoln, I would shape Some promontory lifting from the sea. Standing as Lincoln stood, a mighty cape. Thrust forward into time, a century. Looking as Lincoln looked beyond the shore. Across the ocean of the future years. A rock to stand for men forevermore. And point the way to other pioneers. If I should carve a Lincoln, I would form A figure from a rock that loved the sun. A rock that glistened after every storm. And smiled with verdure when the rain was done. A rock where little children came to play. And violets to blossom on the slope. That found like Lincoln humor in each day. In words of humor, finding words of hope. If you would carve a Lincoln such a stone. You will require O sculptor, for your art. Some stone gigantic standing thus alone. High as his mind and broad as Lincoln's heart. We may not hope to shape with human hands. A fit memorial for such as he. Leave Time to carve it from some rock that stands. Some new Gibraltar by our western sea. About the Publisher. Lincoln, Life-size Philip B. Kunhardt, Peter W. Kunhardt, Peter W. Morgan relates a dream which Lincoln had He thought he was in Images and Dreams a vast assembly and the people drew back to let him pass Just then Lincoln heard someone say He is a common looking fellow Lincoln in his dream turned to the man and said Friend the Lord prefers common looking people that is the reason He makes so many of them Shortly before Lincoln s assassination some friends were talking about certain dreams recorded in the Bible when the President said About two days ago I retired very late I could not have been long in bed when I fell into a slumber for I was weary I soon began to dream There seemed to be a deathlike stillness about me Then I heard subdued sobs as if a number of people were weeping I thought I left my bed and wandered downstairs There the silence was broken by the same pitiful sobbing but the mourners were invisible I went from room to room no living person was in sight but the same mournful sounds of distress met me as I passed along It was light in all the rooms every object was familiar to me but where were all the people who were grieving as if their hearts would break I was puzzled and alarmed What could be the meaning of all this Determined to find the cause of a state of things so mysterious and so shocking I kept on until I arrived at the East Room which I entered Before me was a catafalque on which was a form wrapped in funeral vestments Around it were stationed soldiers who were acting as guards there was a throng of people some gazing mournfully upon the catafalque others weeping pitifully Who is dead in the White House I demanded of one of the soldiers The President was the answer He was killed by an assassin Then came a loud burst of grief from the crowd which woke me from my dream
