Lost Chances Lost Series English Edition:

Noted, but not Invariably Approved J R Spencer, 2014-12-01 John Spencer has worked at Cambridge University for over 40 years. He has lectured, supervised and entertained students in tort, contract, crime, medical law and criminal procedure and evidence. This book is a tribute to Professor Spencer but it is different from the usual tribute in that it contains case notes written and selected by the author himself and all published in the Cambridge Law Journal (CLJ) between 1970 and 2013. With the exception of one note which is somewhat longer, the articles are taken from the case note section of the CLJ which until fairly recently imposed a strict word limit of 1000 words and no more. The complexity of the cases and the prolixity of the judges led to the CLJ relaxing this rule to 1500 words. The case notes reproduced here provide a master class in the writing of incisive, engaging notes. Written with students in mind but also intended for the consumption and edification of a wider audience, these case notes epitomise the way in which Professor Spencer has for 43 years cajoled, lambasted and encouraged the judiciary to see things his way.

The Lost Heir George Alfred Henty, 1899. In this tale of intrigue in India and England, a child who is the sole heir to the fortune of a wealthy Indian Army officer disappears. The officer, a general, has died having been murdered, leaving all his earthly goods to the child. But if the child is dead or cannot be located, the will directs these goods be given to a rogue named Sanderson who poses as John Simcoe. After many intrigues and adventures, Sanderson is exposed as the murderer and forger of a false will, and the rightful heir, the child, is found.

Providing a comprehensive and principled account of the uncertainty problem that arises in tort litigation, this text critically examines the existing doctrinal solutions of the problem as evolved in England, United States, Canada, Israel.

Hockey Field and Lacrosse, Including Net-ball, 1926.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Medal-Mumps, 1911. The last great work of the age of reason, the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view. Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics. Despite its occasional ugliness, the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained within its volumes. It is especially strong in its biographical entries. These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians and scholars.
