London Journal, 1845-83 Andrew King,2017-07-05 This book is the first full length study of one of the most widely read publications of Victorian Britain the London Journal inserting the story of this magazine into the wider context of the Victorian mass market periodical It draws on traditional modes of scholarship in history art history and literature as well as on developments in sociology psychoanalysis and cultural theory However the author ultimately relies on new and extensive primary research to ground the changing ways in which the reading public became consumers of literary commodities on a scale never before seen Previous commentators have coded the mass market as somehow always feminine and King offers a genealogy of how such a gender identity came about Finally King recontextualizes within the Victorian mass market three key nineteenth century novels Walter Scott's Ivanhoe Mary Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret and Zola's The Ladies Paradise and in so doing suggests radically new and unexpected meanings Supplement No.2 to the Alphabetical Finding
