styles and practices have influenced the evolution of the fight against prostitution in Britain the United States and Western Europe From the fear of sin to maternal compassion and survivor shame and loss Michele Greer historicizes emotions and studies them as dynamic forms of situated knowledge In doing so she sheds light on how women s lived experiences have been transformed and politicized and raises important questions around how feminist emotions in social protest can not only challenge but unknowingly defend existing socio political conventions and inequalities Highlighting the links between past and present forms of abolitionism it shows that this connection is more complex and far reaching than currently assumed and offers new perspectives on the history of emotions Medical Times ,1911 Men, Women, and Change Letha
