Bibliography of Agriculture with Subject Index, 1995 No picnic on Mount Kenya Felice Benuzzi, 1964 From the Slopes of Mount Kenya Mary T. Wanjiku, 2012-05 I was born and brought up in Kenya during the struggle for independence from the colonial rule This book is about the trials and tribulations that took place during those difficult years It is also about the cultural changes that the African families endured in that period but where everyone looked out for each other My family moved away from the village into the new emerging cosmopolitan towns and a new way of life where there was the merging of cultures from all over the world This move meant losing some of their cultural identity process but on a positive note led to their embracing in the activities found in the brave new world My story is a personal journey that started with humble beginnings on the slopes of Mount Kenya with the euphoria and excitement that accompanied the freedom from the British rule It is about growing up during the transitional years of post colonial Kenya and taking advantage of the many opportunities and challenges of a new nation and doing whatever was necessary to enable me to reach my goals and to find my identity and role in the new found freedom and independence On God's Mountain Brian Tetley, Mohamed Amin, Duncan Willetts, 1991-11-01 No Picnic on Mount Kenya Felice Benuzzi, 2017-10-10 In the shadow of Mount Kenya surrounded by the forests and creatures of the savannah life drags interminably for the inmates of POW Camp 354 captured in Africa during World War II Confined to an endless cycle of boredom and frustration one prisoner realizes he can bear it no longer When the clouds covering Mount Kenya part one morning to reveal its towering peaks for the first time Felice Benuzzi is transfixed The tedium of camp life is broken by the beginnings of a sudden idea an outrageous dangerous brilliant idea Not many people would break out of a POW camp and trek for days across perilous terrain before climbing the north face of Mount Kenya with improvised equipment meager rations and a picture of the mountain on a tin of beef as their most accurate guide Fewer still would break back into the camp on their return This is the remarkable story of three such men a powerful testament to the human spirit of rebellion and adventure reissued in a deluxe edition featuring Benuzzi's own watercolor paintings of the expedition and a final chapter that has never before appeared in English The Ecology of the Alpine Zone of Mount Kenya M.J. Coe, 2012-12-06 For centuries the peak of Mount Kenya has held a magical and religious significance for the Bantu and Nilohamitic peoples around its base The Kikuyu live around the Eastern and Southern boundaries and the closely related Uembu and Umeru on the S E and N E respectively Early in this century the Masai lived to the N W and North but after continual warfare between them and their neighbours the European administrators of that time moved them to a special reserve to the South which accounts at the present day for the retention in the Masai language of many words that refer to Mount Kenya Kikuyu folk lore tells how when the earth was formed a man named Mogai made a great mountain Kere

Nyaga The fine white powder snow covering the peak which they called ira was said to be the bed of Ngai God and during male and female circumcision ceremonies a white powder was placed on the wound and the initiates were told that this material had been brought from the summit of the mountain In fact all important tribal ceremonies were and in many cases still are conducted facing the mountain Such occasions include marriage and sacrifice when in time of hardship Ngai's aid is called upon CAGNOLO 1933 KENYATTA 1938 CRIRA 1959 Guide to Mount Kenya and Kilimanjaro Iain Allan, 1981

The First Ascent of Mount Kenya Halford John Mackinder, 1991 An account of the author's ascent of Mount Kenya in 1899 Mackinder led a caravan of 176 persons to the summit of the higher of the two peaks Despite an agreement with William Heinemann the account has not been published until now This volume includes additional notes by an English geographer Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1979 Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1959 Brunel University Mountaineering Expedition to Mount Kenya, September 1977 Brunel University, 1977 Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962
