became essential in leading this production through the many fears and doubts of the unknown During my graduate studies I have been committed to developing a more assertive approach to my leadership style I have challenged myself to trust my intuition and take courageous risks to create a safe space without fear of judgment and where trust and respect are given freely I have learned the importance of building trusting and respectful relationships that support and inspire my team to do their best work By being more assertive I demonstrate to the collaborative team and the company that I am looking out for their needs Moving forward I will continue to challenge myself to courageously follow my intuition and be assertive while supporting my collaborators and the production
