

Objectives:

- Be able to describe the development of new states and secondary empires in Africa and understand the relationship between these new states and secondary empires and the role of Europeans in the decline of the slave trade and the rise of the "legitimate trade" from 1750 to 1850.
- Understand the development of British rule in India, the contradictory policies toward reform vs. support of traditions of the raj, and the significance of the Sepoy Rebellion.
- Understand the roles of technological change and market demand in the development of the "New British Empire."
- Be able to describe and give concrete examples of the ways in which African, Asian, and Pacific peoples demonstrated the continued vitality of local cultures during this period.

Section 1: Change & Exchange in Africa

1. Internal pressures in Africa between 1750 and 1850 resulted in:
  2. The Nguni peoples of southeastern Africa traditionally had pursued a life based on:
    3. The Zulu kingdom arose primarily from:
      4. The most powerful and most feared fighters in southern Africa were the:
        5. The kingdoms of Lesotho and Swaziland were created by:
          6. The Zulu succeeded in creating a new:
            7. The consolidation of West African states, such as the Sokoto Caliphate, was inspired by:
              8. Muhammad Ali's creation of modern Egypt was shaped by the attack of:
                9. What methods were used by Muhammad Ali to modernize Egypt?
                  10. Egyptian modernization was paid for by:
                    11. What was the cost of Egypt's modernization and becoming a strong Islamic state?
                      12. By the 1840's Ethiopian leaders made _____ a top priority.
                        13. The French invasion of Algeria was originally a result of:
                          14. Why were European explorers interested in Africa?
                            15. Who was David Livingstone?
                              16. Why did the slave trade end?
                                17. Ironically, the British were the world's greatest slave traders and later the greatest suppressors of slavery?
                                  18. Africans wanted European manufactured goods, so when the slave trade ended, Africans:
                                    19. The most successful export from West Africa after abolition was:
                                      20. The spread of Western cultural influences in West Africa was due in large part to:
  21. Eastern African states are referred to as "secondary empires" because they were:
