Jean Sibelius Violin Concerto:

Jean Sibelius's Violin Concerto Tina K. Ramnarine, 2020 Jean Sibelius's Violin Concerto is the story of Sibelius as performer and composer of violin performing traditions of histories of musical transmission and of virtuosity itself It investigates the history and legacy of one of the most recorded concertos in the violin repertoire Sibelius a celebrated and influential composer of the late 19th and 20th centuries was an accomplished violinist whose enduring interest in the instrument has been paralleled by the broad success of the only concerto in his oeuvre his violin concerto premiered in 1904 and revised in 1905 Considering how violinists engage with the work author Tina K Ramnarine discusses technology's central role in the concerto's transmission from Jascha Heifetz's seminal 1935 recording to contemporary online performances gender issues in violin solo careers and nature based musical aesthetics that lead to thinking about the ecology of virtuosity in an era of environmental crisis Beginning with Sibelius's early training as a violinist and his aspirations as a performer Ramnarine traces the dramatic historical context of the violin concerto It was composed as Finland underwent a period of heightened self determination nationalism and protest against Russian imperial policies and it heralded intense political dynamics relating to Europe's East West border that have extended to the present This story of the violin concerto points to the notion of Sibelius and the virtuoso more generally as a political figure

Jean Sibelius, Violin Concerto Erkki Salmenhaara, 1996 Sibelius Symphony No.5 Violin Concerto Jean Sibelius, 1991 Great twentieth-century violin concertos Jean Sibelius, Edward Elgar, 1995-01-01 Three of the most popular modern violin concertos Sibelius Violin Concerto in D Minor Op 47 among the most played and recorded of all violin concertos Elgar's Violin Concerto in B Minor Op 61 a ravishing combination of bravura and sweetness and Glazunov's Violin Concerto in A Minor Op 82 a masterpiece of lyricism and virtuosity

The Violin Mark Katz, 2006 This book is the only complete and up to date annotated bibliography available on women's activities and contributions in the creation and performance of music through the ages Encompassing major books articles and recordings published over the past five decades the book examines a broad cross section of contemporary thought with each entry with over 500 devoted to resources from countries outside the US including annotation along with a critical description of content

The Essential Classical Recordings Rick Phillips, 2012-12-18 Most guides to classical recordings on CD comprise thousands of brief listings In their attempt to be comprehensive they end up being heavy and intimidating Phillips knows better He sticks to what he considers to be the 101 essential CDs and tells readers not only why each one is the best recording in his opinion but also why this piece of music belongs in their collection and where the composer fits into the evolution of classical music Read consecutively the recommendations from medieval Gregorian chant to Arvo Pärt's Fratres written in 1977 form a dazzling and concise history of classical music Bach Beethoven and Mozart are here of course along with other beloved but lesser known composers such as Josquin Desprez Anton Bruckner and Gabriel Fauré And popular pieces such as Bach's Brandenburg Concertos Handel's The Water Music and Elgar's Enigma

Variations are complemented by such less familiar but outstanding compositions as the Turangalila Symphony by Olivier Messiaen. Connoisseurs and die hard listeners to Sound Advice will appreciate having Phillips's recommendations of specific recordings and their catalogue numbers between two covers at long last. And those who are just starting to explore the rich world of classical music will soon discover that Phillips is a guide they can trust. A Performance Guide Based on Otakar ě EvĚ – ©Uk's Method "studies and Analysis" for Jean Sibelius' Violin Concerto Serena Scibelli, 2018. The Violin Concerto Op. 47 by Jean Sibelius 1904-1905 is accepted in the standard repertoire as a major work of equal caliber to other well known romantic virtuoso concertos such as those composed by Mendelssohn 1844, Tchaikovsky 1878 and Brahms 1879 and presents remarkable challenges to the performer. Violinist and influential teacher Otakar ěvĚk wrote analytical studies specific to several works in the violin literature. These etudes are specifically created for difficult excerpts within each piece and help the violinist to simplify the practice process. Although violin players have many available options for technical methods to achieve superior technique on the instrument, no published collections equivalent to ěvĚka's analytical studies exist for Sibelius Violin Concerto. The primary focus of this dissertation is the creation of preparatory exercises specific to the three movements of Sibelius Violin Concerto following the method employed by O ěvĚk, although the creation of an analytical study method for this concerto will not be its only scope. The purpose of this dissertation is to initiate thoughts and ideas regarding the creativity that musicians need to flourish when generating a personal practice method that maximizes practice efficiency and hones personal technical and musical potential. Through the use of these exercises, the performer can improve their technique by applying the suggested practice methods to the repertoire, developing the ability to identify and overcome technical challenges. 0.3 a skill that will be valuable throughout their career. The New Music Review and Church Music Review, 1913.
