Searching for Words: How Can We Tell Our Stories of Suicide, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 It is all too easy to begin the introduction of a book examining suicide by citing statistics on rates of death around the world The vast majority of research seeks to make sense of suicide through quantitative analysis however this does not begin to do justice to the lived experience While we do not wish to suggest there is one right lens through which to study suicide we must recognize that there are myriad lenses through which to examine it There are many voices many stories that must be heeded and these stories are not just of the people who have themselves died by suicide but also those who are or have been suicidal and those who have been bereaved by suicide By examining cultural perspectives different media memory and place as well as loss this book aims to tell stories of suicide and working and living with the suicidal
