Mt Kenya 2015 Admissions:

Kenya's 2013 General Election Njogu, Kimani, Wekesa, Peter Wafula, 2017-08-09 When voters enthusiastically turn up to cast their vote during general elections they expect that their action would meaningfully change their lives But in most of Africa even when elections are held on a regular basis voters are quite often disappointed by the performance of their leaders who use the new positions as an opportunity to loot public resources and consolidate power It is almost as if elections are of minimal value to the populace Notwithstanding this trend when they are free and fair general elections can be transformative They can bring into the political arena men and women of integrity committed to service and accountability Inspired by the determination to have inclusive governance and the advancement of democracy Kenya's 2013 General Election Stakes Practices and Outcomes asks important questions related to political participation coalition building politics of identity the international criminal court electoral systems and institutions and the judiciary The papers are written by mainly Kenyan academics and civil society actors who examine the drivers of the 2013 general elections and the sources of the mandate to lead This book is part of publications by Twaweza Communications on democratic practice and accountable governance in Kenya Institutional Engineering and Hybrid Power-sharing in Divided Societies Krzysztof Trzciński, 2024-08-12 Many societies are strongly divided especially in ethnic religious racial and ideological terms Such divisions are usually related to the existence of divergent interests that may lead to serious conflicts between groups and or between them and state authorities In order to limit them participation in decision making processes by members of different groups is needed However it is extremely difficult to establish and maintain effective power sharing arrangements This book examines the cases of Indonesia Nigeria Kenya and Burundi where hybrid models of power sharing have emerged combining specific elements of consociational and centripetal types It also explains the specificity life cycle and performance of different hybrid systems The contribution of biodiversity for food and agriculture to the resilience of production systems Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-06-24 This study reviews the available information on the contribution of biodiversity for food and agriculture to the resilience of crop livestock forest fishery and aquaculture production systems to environmental change and uncertainty Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M. Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women's career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa National Action Plan on Education for All, 2003-2015 Kenya, 2003 Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world's legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines countries and cultures document and analyse those changes The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America Western Europe Latin America Asia Australia North Africa and the Middle East sub Saharan Africa and former communist countries These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship changes in lawyer demography rapidly growing numbers and the profession's efforts to retain control the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality ethnic diversity legal education the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation the regulation of lawyers structures of production especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice state funded legal aid and pro bono services The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order
