

UCI UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH JOURNAL PAPER SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The UCI Undergraduate Research Journal welcomes the submission of manuscripts from all academic disciplines. It is expected that submissions to the Journal will be structured according to the established literary conventions of the discipline researched, and that manuscripts will be organized/sectioned in a manner that maximizes both the substance and clarity of the document.

There is no preset number of papers that will be accepted for publication in the Journal. All papers that meet our standard of excellence, regardless of how many there are and what disciplines they are from, will be published. If no submitted papers are judged to be worthy of publication, the Journal will not be published.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Regardless of the field of study, all papers published in the Journal have these items in common:

- The purpose and significance of the research is described clearly for the Journal's multidisciplinary audience.
- The research is original and relevant to its field.
- The research project was well designed and executed.
- The results are thoughtfully interpreted and thoroughly analyzed.
- Conclusions are logically supported through results and cited sources.
- Supporting materials—including illustrations, graphs, and references—reinforce the descriptions and claims made in the text.
- The paper is well written, efficiently organized, and easy to follow.
- The paper is free from spelling, punctuation, grammatical, and other writing errors.

Journal Submission Deadline

Monday, October 1, 2012

research into the use and effectiveness of various communications through digital platforms about such corporate responsibility is scarce This gap is surprising communicating about corporate social responsibility initiatives is vital to organizations that increasingly highlight their corporate social responsibility initiatives to position their corporate brands for both consumers and other stakeholders Yet these organizations still sometimes rely on traditional methods to communicate or even decide against communicating at all because they fear triggering stakeholders skepticism or cynicism A systematic interdisciplinary examination of corporate social responsibility communication through digital platforms therefore is necessary to establish an essential definition and up to date picture of the field This research anthology addresses the above objectives Drawing on marketing management and communication disciplines among others this anthology examines how organizations construct implement and use digital platforms to communicate about their corporate social responsibility and thereby achieve their organizational goals The 21 chapters in this anthology reflect six main topic sections Challenges and opportunities for communicating corporate social responsibility through digital platforms Moving toward symmetry and interactivity in digital corporate social responsibility communication Fostering stakeholder engagement in and through digital corporate social responsibility communication Leveraging effective digital corporate social responsibility communication Digital activism and corporate social responsibility Digital methodologies and corporate social responsibility
