The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) and Its Impact on Entrepreneurship Research Niels S. Bosma, 2013 The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor GEM is a project carried out by a research consortium dedicated to understanding the relationship between entrepreneurship and national economic development Since 1999 GEM reports have been a key source of comparable data across a large variety of countries on attitudes toward entrepreneurship start up and established business activities and aspirations of entrepreneurs for their businesses The growing databases increasingly allow for in depth academic research and this is mirrored by the rapidly increasing amount of GEM based scientific publications in a wider range of academic journals At this point it is appropriate to provide an overview on these publications to summarize their main contributions and to provide some directions for obtaining promising GEM based academic contributions in the future This publication provides a review of 89 GEM based academic publications in SSCI listed journals since 2004 with the objectives to highlight the particular advantages of GEM data their quality and usability as well as their limitations It also recommends a number of ways in which the GEM project might evolve further and make more impact on entrepreneurship research on entrepreneurship policy and practice and ultimately on getting more grip on the complex relation between entrepreneurship and economic development

The Routledge Companion to Global Value Chains Renu Agarwal, Christopher Bajada, Roy Green, Katrina Skellern, 2021-09-30 This Companion provides a review of global value chains GVCs and the megatrends that are shaping them and will continue to reshape them in deep set trajectories of change over the next few decades Megatrends herald both challenges and opportunities With the growing interest among business leaders and researchers in GVCs this is a reference work which fills a gap in current literature by focusing on the new features of GVCs including the shift of global purchasing power towards developing economies the significance of emerging technologies and data analytics the increasing tensions between globalisation and de globalisation and the role of micro multinationals start up entrepreneurs the public sector and middle markets in a fast changing global economy The early chapters are essentially intradisciplinary in character with the first seeking to explore some historical aspects of GVCs Subsequent chapters cover the theory and practice of operations and supply chain management emerging supply chain technologies and the impact of inter firm collaboration across sectors and economies The final chapters take a more interdisciplinary approach and examine topics at the interface of GVCs with the economy society culture and politics This comprehensive handbook provides a timely analysis of leading edge global megatrends and practices in one volume

Implementing New Business Models in For-Profit and Non-Profit Organizations: Technologies and

Applications Chen, Te Fu, 2010-12-31 As technology continues to evolve existing business models become limited with respect to complexity and speed Accordingly significant transformation has shaped the economy and business environments in recent decades Implementing New Business Models in For Profit and Non Profit Organizations Technologies and Applications provides relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical research findings on a new platform of business models and then explores the relationship between the new Business 2 0 alliance and Web 2 0

Women and Global Entrepreneurship Maura McAdam, James Cunningham, 2021-04-05 Entrepreneurship in context has been described as the third wave in entrepreneurship research Accordingly specific socio economic political market and institutional contexts are key to fostering enabling and enacting entrepreneurial activity and behaviours These contexts shape everyday entrepreneurship experiences This book is based on the premise that how gender is articulated within the entrepreneurial debate has to acknowledge context However context is not a construct that only applies to those economies and situations that differ from the presumed norm of Western developed nations Adopting a more critical appraisal of how context is positioned within current theorizing around gender and entrepreneurial behaviours offers potential to progress debate whilst acknowledging that competing and contrasting contextual influences require clearer recognition This book therefore has the potential to unearth credible and robust approaches to further examining contextualisation and women entrepreneurship that advances new insights By exploring and examining how contextual influences shape women s entrepreneurship this book challenges the assumption that women entrepreneurship is the same throughout the world It will be of value to researchers academics and students with an interest in entrepreneurship political economy economics and public policy
