Post-Conflict Transition in Lebanon Lyna Comaty, 2019-06-07 Addressing one of the most pressing issues of the Lebanese Civil War 1975-1990 that is still unresolved almost 30 years later this book adopts a political sociological and anthropological approach to look at periods of transition from conflict to peace in Lebanon. Inducing a set of questions about the social and political system the post conflict state has been pushing for a politics of amnesty and amnesia. The case study delves into the notion of transition from conflict to peace in Lebanon by looking in the case of the estimated 17 000 people who disappeared during the Civil War. Using the concept of liminality to understand the evolution of the issue over the years the book follows the trajectory of the relatives of the missing who have formed a communitas a group sharing strong feelings of comradeship and brother sisterhood by virtue of finding themselves in the same situation. Offering a novel way of looking at transitions the book is a significant contribution to peace studies and it will be an interest of students and academics working in human rights political science and the Middle East disciplines.

Identity Transformation and Politicization in Africa Toyin Falola, Céline A. Jacquemin, 2022-09-06 Identity Transformation and Politicization in Africa Shifting Mobilization edited by Toyin Falola and Céline A. Jacquemin questions whether identity is providing and sustaining power for elites or fueling oppression and conflicts being mobilized for exclusionary movements versus inclusive societal changes or educating in ways that foster progress and development. Do aspects of African identities and the challenges they present also hold prospects for more inclusive and peaceful democratic and representative futures? The contributors cover a wide spectrum of expertise on different African countries: Kenya, Nigeria, Ghana, Rwanda, Morocco, and Libya. They come from diverse disciplines: History, Political Science, Public Administration, Philosophy, Economics, and Finance, Cultural Studies, Music, and International Relations, and use various methods and approaches in their research. Some contributors belong to the groups whose identity is being scrutinized and are participants in the efforts to politicize and mobilize while others remain outside observers who share some traits or interests with the African identities examined and provide different kinds of insights. Several chapters explore how innovative pedagogical projects studying African history and identity facilitated by the internet and new social media transform and connect with the African continent. Each author provides important insights on how mobilization around identity issues has been shifting with the internet and social media.
