Read the text and answer the questions 4 and 5:

William Shakespeare (1564 – 1616) was born at Stratford-upon-Avon in a house in Henley Street. This is preserved intact. His mother, Mary Arden, was one of the daughters of Robert Arden, a yeoman farmer of Wilmore: his father, John Shakespeare, was a Glover and wool dealer of good standing who held the office of Bailiff of the Borough in 1568. From the age of seven to about 14, he attended Stratford Grammar School receiving an excellent well-rounded education. At the age of 18 Shakespeare married Anne Hathaway, who was seven years his senior and three months pregnant. She was of 'yeoman' stock – her family owned a farm one mile west of Stratford in Shottery. He endured her until he could stand it no longer and fled to London to become an actor. He then became actor-manager and part-owner in the Black friars and afterwards the Globe Theatres. Shakespeare's acting career was spent with the Lord Chamberlain's Company, where he was a first-rate actor. The company was renamed the King's Company in 1603 when James succeeded to the throne. Among the actors in the group was the famous Richard Burbage. The partnership acquired interests in two theatres in the Southward area of London, near the banks of the Thames – the Globe and the Black friars. Shakespeare returned to Stratford for his later years where he died at the age of 52 and now lies at rest in his special grave at Holy Trinity Church.

Rethinking Judicial Jurisdiction in Private International Law Milana Karayanidi, 2020-02-20 This book explores the theory and practice of judicial jurisdiction within the field of private international law It offers a revised look at values justifying the power of courts to hear and decide cross border disputes and demonstrates that a re conceptualisation of jurisdiction is needed Rather than deriving from territorial power of states jurisdiction in civil and commercial cross border matters ought to be driven by party autonomy This autonomy can be limited by certain considerations of equality and critical state sovereign interests The book applies this normative view to the existing rules of jurisdiction in the European Union and the Russian Federation These regimes are chosen due to their unique positions towards values in private international law and contrasting societal norms that generate and accommodate these values Notwithstanding disparate cultural and political ideas these regimes reveal a surprising level of consistency when it comes to enforcement of party autonomy There is nevertheless room for improvement The book demonstrates to scholars policy makers and lawmakers that jurisdiction should be re centred around the interests of private actors and proposes ways to improve the current rules
