Radio Soundings Liz Gunner, 2019-01-31 Zulu Radio in South Africa is one of the most far reaching and influential media in the region currently attracting around 6.67 million listeners daily While the public and political role of radio is well established what is less understood is how it has shaped culture by allowing listeners to negotiate modern identities and fast changing lifestyles Liz Gunner explores how understandings of the self family and social roles were shaped through this medium of voice and mediated sound Radio was the unseen literature of the auditory the drama of the airwaves and thus became a conduit for many talents squeezed aside by apartheid repression Besides Winnie Mahlangu and K E Masinga among other talents the exiles Lewis Nkosi and Bloke Modisane made a network of identities and conversations which stretched from the heart of Harlem to the American South drawing together the threads of activism and creativity from both Black America and the African continent at a critical moment of late empire Radio Soundings Elizabeth Gunner,2019-01-31 Maps an apartheid era Zulu Radio station as it grew to become one of the largest stations in Africa countering censorship and propaganda Welcome to Greater Edendale Marc Epprecht,2016-11-01 A mid sized South African city s struggle against its legacies of environmental injustice A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School Annabel Watson,Ruth G Newman,2021-11-29 A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School offers straightforward advice inspiration and a wide range of tried and tested approaches to help you find success in the secondary English classroom Covering all aspects of English teaching it is designed for you to dip in and out of and enable you to focus on specific areas of teaching your programme or pupils learning Fully updated to reflect what student and early career teachers see and experience when they enter the classroom the second edition supports trainee and practicing teachers to teach in imaginative and creative ways to promote learning in English Packed with ideas resources practical teaching activities and underpinned by the latest research into how children learn the book examines the core areas of reading writing and spoken English including Plays poetry non fiction myths and legends drama and Shakespeare Developing writing Creative grammar Talk and classroom dialogue Media and digital writing English across the curriculum Well being through writing Literature and language post 16 Including tools to support critical reflection A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School is an essential companion for all training and newly qualified English teachers

Drawing for Science Education Phyllis Katz,2017-03-23 This book argues for the essential use of drawing as a tool for science teaching and learning The authors are working in schools universities and continual science learning CSL settings around the world They have written of their experiences using a variety of prompts to encourage people to take pen to paper and draw their thinking sometimes direct observation and in other instances their memories The result is a collection of research and essays that offer theory techniques outcomes and models for the reader Young children have provided evidence of the perceptions that they have accumulated from families and the media before they reach classrooms Secondary students describe their ideas of chemistry and physics Teacher educators use drawings to consider the progress of their undergraduates understanding of science teaching and even their moral ethical responses to teaching about climate change Museum visitors have drawn their understanding of the physics of how exhibit sounds are transmitted A physician explains how the history of drawing has been a critical tool to medical education and doctor patient communications Each chapter contains samples insights and where applicable analysis techniques The chapters in this book should be helpful to researchers and teachers alike across the teaching and learning continuum The sections are divided by the kinds of activities for which drawing has historically been used in science education An instance of observation Audubon Linnaeus A process how plants grow over time what happens when chemicals combine Conceptions of what science is and who does it Images of identity development in science teaching and learning Linguistic Data Science and the English Passive Axel Bohmann, Julia Müller, Mirka Honkanen, Miriam Neuhausen, 2025-11-13 The choice between BE and GET as auxiliary verbs as in She was promoted vs She got promoted is a central grammatical feature yet the many proposed nuances conditioning this phenomenon have escaped large scale empirical validation to date This book fills this gap using multivariate statistical analyses of several large corpora to explore different factors determining the choice of English passive auxiliary Addressing both diachronic developments using the Corpus of Historical American English and synchronic regional variation using the Corpus of Global Web based English the book employs methods that combine traditional corpus linguistics with newer machine learning tools in an innovative and intricate manner To circumscribe the variable context the authors train a statistical model to distinguish central from peripheral passives The study tests the influence of various predictors derived from the previous literature on the passive with the use of automated sentiment analysis and subject detection manual animacy coding distributional semantics and a mixed effects regression model Putting forward an automatic way of distinguishing more stative from more dynamic passives the book demonstrates how to examine the passive construction in a much larger dataset than in previous studies and shows how advanced computational models can be used to productively engage traditional philological questions such as those related to language change and regional variation
