Masson, 2019-09-15 Excerpt Does any one remember the Caravan She was what would now be considered a slow boat then 1827 she was regularly advertised as the fast running etc Her regular trips from New Orleans to Natchez were usually made in from six to eight days a trip made by her in five days was considered remarkable A voyage from New Orleans to Vicksburg and back including stoppages generally entitled the officers and crew to a month s wages Whether the Caravan ever achieved the feat of a voyage to the Falls Louisville I have never learned if she did she must have had a time of it It was my fate to take passage in this boat The Captain was a good natured easy going man careful of the comfort of his passengers and exceedingly fond of the game of brag We had been out a little more than five days and we were in hopes of seeing the bluffs of Natchez on the next day Our wood was getting low and night coming on The pilot on duty above the other pilot held three aces at the time and was just calling out the Captain who went it strong on three kings sent down word that the mate had reported the stock of wood reduced to half a cord The worthy Captain excused himself to the pilot whose watch was below and the two passengers who made up the party and hurried to the deck where he soon discovered by the landmarks that we were about half a mile from a woodyard which he said was situated right round yonder point But muttered the Captain I don t much like to take wood of the yellow faced old scoundrel who owns it he always charges a quarter of a dollar more than any one else however there s no other chance The boat was pushed to her utmost and in a little less than an hour when our fuel was about giving out we made the point and our cables were out and fastened to trees alongside of a good sized woodpile Hallo Colonel How d ye sell your wood this time A yellow faced old gentleman with a two weeks beard strings over his shoulders holding up to his armpits a pair of copperas colored linsey woolsey pants the legs of which reached a very little below the knee shoes without stockings a faded broad brimmed hat which had once been black and a pipe in his mouth casting a glance at the empty guards of our boat and uttering a grunt as he rose from fastening our spring line answered Why Capting we must charge you three and a quarter this time

Masson,2018-06-25 Little Masterpieces of American Wit and Humor Volume I Thomas L Masson It was in the year of our Lord 1629 that Mynheer Wouter Van Twiller was appointed Governor of the province of Nieuw Nederlandts under the commission and control of their High Mightinesses the Lords States General of the United Netherlands and the privileged West India Company This renowned old gentleman arrived at New Amsterdam in the merry month of June the sweetest month in all the year when dan Apollo seems to dance up the transparent firmament when the robin the thrush and a thousand other wanton songsters make the woods to resound with amorous ditties and the luxurious little bob lincon revels among the clover blossoms of the meadows all which happy coincidences persuaded the old dames of New Amsterdam who were skilled in the art of foretelling events that this was to be a happy and prosperous administration The renowned Wouter or Walter Van Twiller was descended from a long line of Dutch burgomasters who had successively dozed away their lives and grown fat upon the bench of magistracy in Rotterdam and who had comported themselves with such singular wisdom and propriety that they were never either heard or talked of which next to being universally applauded should be the object of ambition of all magistrates and rulers There are two opposite ways by which some men make a figure in the world one by talking faster than they think and the other by holding their tongues and not thinking at all By the first many a smatterer acquires the reputation of a man of quick parts by the other many a dunderpate like the owl the stupidest of birds comes to be considered the very type of wisdom This by the way is a casual remark which I would not for the universe have it thought I apply to Governor Van Twiller It is true he was a man shut up within himself like an oyster and rarely spoke except in monosyllables but then it was allowed he seldom said a foolish thing So invincible was his gravity that he was never known to laugh or even to smile through the whole course of a long and prosperous life Nay if a joke were uttered in his presence that set light minded hearers in a roar it was observed to throw him into a state of perplexity Sometimes he would deign to inquire into the matter and when after much explanation the joke was made as plain as a pike staff he would continue to smoke his pipe in silence and at length knocking out the ashes would exclaim Well I see nothing in all that to laugh about We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience      Masterpieces of American Wit
