Guitar Isaac Albeniz, 1978 Romanza, 2021-12-15 Composer Enrique Granados along with Isaac Albeniz brought modern Spanish music into the home of the avid music lover Most of Granados works are for piano solo and through them he created a unique style of writing for the then modern school of Spanish keyboard music Many of his works have been successfully arranged for guitar and are among the all time audience favorites in the instrument's literature The origin of this beautiful Romanza is unclear and the manuscript does not list a date of creation However it is probably circa 1909 The piece has many attributes that reflect Granados love of the music of Robert Schumann This largely unknown work originally for violin and piano is shown in a new and intimate light through the adaptation for violin and guitar by Gregg Nestor and should prove to be an exciting and welcome addition to duo repertoire and chamber ensemble for this combination We are grateful to William Knuth Assistant Professor of Violin Setnor School of Music Syracuse University who contributed to refinements of this edition

Rimas de Bécquer, 2016-12-17 Isaac Albeniz's 1860 1909 name immediately conjures up his piano masterpiece Iberia and various works that have met their success in fine transcriptions for guitar and that are a staple of the repertoire for the instrument But sprinkled through his tremendously active career as a composer and piano virtuoso ensemble musician conductor impresario and piano teacher are his songs over thirty of them These songs show a different side of the composer More carefully considered than familiar light weight salon pieces they display a greater sensitivity and attention to detail The Rimas de Bécquer Poems of Bécquer 1885 like the poems themselves are succinct works the longest does not exceed thirty three measures The repeated rocking motion in the accompaniment of the first song for example characterizes the motion of the waves while the frenetic arpeggiations in the last song dramatize the narrator's extreme agitation Together these early jewels mirror in microcosm the development of his unique voice and style in masterworks that were to come and that tie him as a major musical icon in the Spanish Nationalist style We are grateful to Dr Lin He Associate Professor of Violin Louisiana State University who contributed to refinements of this edition Collected Works of Isaac Albeniz for Piano Solo Isaac Albeniz, Albeniz, I Torre Bermeja Serenata Guitar Music Sales Corporation, Collected works of Isaac Albeniz Isaac
