Mary Doreen Wainwright

Isizulu Paper November 2memorandum:

The View Across the River Jeff Guy, 2002 This is a paperback edition of a 2001 book combining biography and larger historical narrative Guy history U of Natal South Africa studies the life of the daughter of the Bishop of Natal Harriette Colenso as a window into the continuing process of imperialism and colonialism after the destruction of the Zulu Kingdom's political hierarchy After the military defeat of the Zulus the invaders turned their attention to diverting Zululand's productive capacity and material wealth to the benefit of the colonizers but a number of women and men including Colenso resisted this exploitation Guy argues that an examination of her interaction with the Zulus should be viewed as a contribution to understanding the complicated role of women in the world of late 19th century imperialism Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Rope of Sand John Laband, 1995 The Kingdom forged by Shaka was once one of the most powerful and sophisticated black states in Africa It took the British at the height of their imperial power six months and a full military campaign to bring the kingdom down Thereafter Zululand was broken up consigned to bitter civil war and eventually annexed piecemeal its land given over to white farmers in a saga of humiliation and loss This book gives an account of the dramatic emergence and tragic decline of the Zulu kingdom in the 19th century based on research fieldwork It ranges from themes such as Zulu social and political organization through analysis of the vivid personalities and complex political manoeuvres of leading Zulu and their colonial opponents to descriptions of military campaigns and battles
