Islamic Art and Architecture Robert

Hillenbrand,2021-04-20 A bold readable and beautifully illustrated introduction to Islamic art and architecture this renowned book is now available in an updated and revised edition featuring color illustrations throughout Including over a thousand years of history and stretching from the Atlantic to the borders of India and China Islamic Art and Architecture is an unparalleled narrative of the arts of Islamic civilization From the death of the Prophet Muhammad to 1900 Islamic art expert Robert Hillenbrand traces the evolution of an extraordinary range of art forms including architecture calligraphy book illumination painting ceramics glassware textiles and metalwork This new edition includes a chapter examining art produced from 1700 to 1900 an understudied period in the area exploring how these centuries saw incredible creativity across the Islamic world Featuring full color illustrations of masterpieces of Islamic art and architecture from seventh century Arabia via Moorish Spain to modern Iran this book shows the far reaching stylistic developments that have shaped Islamic art Including maps an updated glossary and suggested further reading this authoritative and accessible volume sheds light on the recurrent preoccupations and themes that have shaped the arts of Islam since the seventh century

Islamic Art and Architecture Robert Hillenbrand,1999      Essays in Islamic Art and Architecture Abbas Daneshvari,1981-01-01      Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami,2013-12-20 What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition s preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art It addresses a central question in post classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature philosophy poetry medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice politics cosmology and desire In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze

in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within opposing Islamic political and social projects throughout the world

Beauty and Islam Valerie Gonzalez, 2001-08-24 Beauty and Islam explores aspects of aesthetics in classical Islamic thought in the light of contemporary theories offering new perspectives on Islamic art and architecture with examples ranging from the Qur'an and the Alhambra to the works of present day artists and philosophers Tracing the roots of Islamic aesthetics back to the works of the great philosophers of the Middle Ages such as Avicenna and Averroes Valerie Gonzalez finds that aesthetic theory in Islam must be seen within the much wider context of parallel thinking on theology ethics physics and metaphysics

Early Islamic Art and Architecture Jonathan M. Bloom, 2017-05-15 This volume deals with the formative period of Islamic art to c 950 and the different approaches to studying it Individual essays deal with architecture ceramics coins textiles and manuscripts as well as with such broad questions as the supposed prohibition of images and the relationships between sacred and secular art An introductory essay sets each work in context it is complemented by a bibliography for further reading

Islamic Art and Beyond Oleg Grabar, 2006 The articles selected for Islamic Art and Beyond the third in the set of four selections of articles by Oleg Grabar illustrate how the author's study of Islamic art led him in two directions for a further understanding of the arts One is how to define Islamic art and what impulses provided it with its own peculiar forms and dynamics of growth The other issue is that of the meanings to be given to forms like domes so characteristic of Islamic art or to terms like symbol signs or aesthetic values in the arts especially when one considers the contemporary world
