Islamic Studies Jss2:

Historical Dictionary of Sufism John Renard, 2015-11-19 The most broadly accepted explanation of Sufism is the etymological derivation of the term from the Arabic for wool of associating practitioners with a preference for poor rough clothing This explanation clearly identifies Sufism with ascetical practice and the importance of manifesting spiritual poverty through material poverty In fact some of the earliest Western descriptions of individuals now widely associated with the larger phenomenon of Sufism identified them with the Arabic term faqir mendicant or its most common Persian equivalent darwish Sufism as presented here embraces a host of features including the ritual institutional psychological hermeneutical artistic literary ethical and epistemological This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Sufism contains a chronology an introduction a glossary and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities major historical figures and movements practices economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Sufism Flamingo

Social Studies for Junior Secondary Schools: For JSS 2 Ahmed Ibrahim, 2005* Companionship and Virtue in Classical Sufism Jason Welle, 2024-06-27 Al Sulami d 412 1021 was an influential classical Sufi master whose works espoused companionship as a way for believers to experience God's guidance and cultivate religious virtues This book provides a historical reconstruction of Sufi companionship in Khurasan in the period arguing that al Sulami's concept of suhba companionship envisioned the transformation of society as whole not just the master disciple relationship Bringing debates in contemporary virtue ethics to bear on al Sulami's spiritual method the book offers an original analysis of the latter's thought that will be of interest to scholars of early Islam and classical Sufism as well as moral theologians interested in virtue ethics character and friendship Seeing God in Sufi Qur'an Commentaries Pieter Coppens, 2017-09-08 Examines the coming of age genre its themes stylistic characteristics and cultural function in New Zealand's national cinema

Key Themes for the Study of Islam Jamal J. Elias, 2014-10-01 Key Themes for the Study of Islam examines the central themes and concepts indispensable to an informed understanding of Islamic religion and society From Gender and History to Prayer and Prophecy each authoritative chapter focuses on a single aspect of the religion and presents a critical discussion written by a world expert in that field Exposing as false the idea that Islam and Muslims are incomprehensible to Western culture this book will become the first choice for students and experts in religion from disparate fields who wish to know how Islam relates to vital concepts in religion and society today Israel Oriental Studies, 1992-01-31 Contributions by Moshe Gil Joel L Kraemer P S van Koningsveld Gideon Goldenberg R J Hayward Geoffrey Khan Anson F Rainey Shlomo Raz Daniel Sivan and J Sadan

Rethinking Islamic Studies Carl W. Ernst, Richard C. Martin, 2012-11-27 A groundbreaking response to the challenges of interpreting Islamic religion in the post 9 11 and post Orientalist era Rethinking Islamic Studies upends scholarly roadblocks in post Orientalist discourse within contemporary Islamic studies and carves fresh inroads toward a robust new understanding of the discipline one that includes religious studies and other politically infused fields of inquiry Editors Carl W Ernst and Richard C Martin along with a distinguished group of scholars map the trajectory of the study of Islam and offer innovative approaches to the theoretical and methodological frameworks that have traditionally dominated the field In the volume s first section the contributors reexamine the underlying notions of modernity in the East and West and allow for the possibility of multiple and incongruent modernities This opens a discussion of fundamentalism as a manifestation of the tensions of modernity in Muslim cultures The second section addresses the volatile character of Islamic religious identity as expressed in religious and political movements at national and local levels In the third section contributors focus on Muslim communities in Asia and examine the formation of religious models and concepts as they appear in this region This study concludes with an afterword by accomplished Islamic studies scholar Bruce B Lawrence reflecting on the evolution of this post Orientalist approach to Islam and placing the volume within existing and emerging scholarship Rethinking Islamic Studies offers original perspectives for the discipline each utilizing the tools of modern academic inquiry to help illuminate contemporary incarnations of Islam for a growing audience of those invested in a sharper understanding of the Muslim world

Islamic and Comparative Religious Studies William Albert Graham,2010 William A Graham a leading international scholar in the field of Islamic Studies gathers together his selected writings in this volume under three sections 1 History and Interpretation of Islamic Religion 2 The Qur an as Scripture and 3 Scripture in the History of Religion This invaluable resource will be of primary interest to students of the Islamic tradition especially in regard to Qur anic piety Muslim ritual practice and fundamental structures of Islamic thought It will also be of interest to students of the comparative history of religion especially as regards the phenomenon of scripture and its analogs Graham s work in Islamic studies focuses largely on the analysis and interpretation of the religious dimensions of ritual action scriptural piety textual authority revelation tradition and major concepts such as grace and transcendence His work in the comparative history of religion has focused in particular on the problem of scripture as a cross cultural religious phenomenon that is more complex than simply sacred text This invaluable resource will be of primary interest to students of the Islamic tradition especially as regards Qur anic piety Muslim ritual practice and fundamental structures of Islamic thought and to students of the comparative history of religion especially as regards the phenomenon of scripture and its analogs

□□□□□□□□□□ □ □□□□□ : □□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ M. H. Bakalla,1983 Karaite Judaism Meira Polliack,2003 This Guide to Karaite Studies contains thirty seven chapters which cover all the main areas of the fascinating and varied history and literature of medieval and modern Karaite Judaism The volume reflects this rapidly growing field of Jewish Studies as analysed by an international team of experts and taught in various universities and institutes Elements of Islamic Studies Sayyid Saeed Akhtar Rizvi,1986-01-01 The SAGE Handbook of Islamic Studies Akbar S Ahmed,Tamara Sonn,2010-04-22 a welcome addition to the already available introductory works on Islam The chapters of the book combine depth of analysis and erudition on a wide range of subjects

Thus in a single volume one finds several superbly written papers not only on the foundations of Islam and the manifestations of Islamic culture but also on issues which are at the centre of contemporary debates among Muslims such as multiculturalism social justice democracy and diversity As a sourcebook this work is equally useful for students academicians and general readers Zafar Ishaq Ansari Director Islamic Research Institute International Islamic University Islamic Studies is at a critical moment in its history It seeks both to maintain its rich history and to engage with other sometimes dominant cultural and political studies This tension is producing complex changes in both the theory and the practice of Islamic Studies This timely and stimulating Handbook edited by world class experts in the field provides a comprehensive guide to Islamic Studies today It examines the main issues in the field and explores the key debates It provides readers with an indispensable balanced guide to the roots of Islam and the challenges it faces in the twenty first century The Handbook includes discussions of Islam as a community of discourse and a global system Islam diaspora and multiculturalism The Qu ran today Islam as a moral and judicial system Islam and politics Islam and culture Diversities and Islam Concise level headed and penetrating this collection will be of interest to anyone who studies contemporary Islam It brings together an unparalleled collection of international scholars who illuminate some of the most urgent and complex issues in the world today The Bloomsbury Companion to Islamic Studies Clinton Bennett, 2014-11-20 The Bloomsbury Companion to Islamic Studies is a comprehensive one volume reference guide to Islam and study in this area A team of leading international scholars Muslim and non Muslim cover important aspects of study in the field providing readers with a complete and accessible source of information to the wide range of methodologies and theoretical principles involved Presenting Islam as a variegated tradition key essays from the contributors demonstrate how it is subject to different interpretations with no single version privileged In this volume Islam is treated as a lived experience not only as theoretical ideal or textual tradition Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including a substantial A Z of key terms and concepts chronology and a detailed list of resources this is the essential reference guide for anyone working in Islamic Studies Teaching Islam Brannon M. Wheeler, 2002-12-19 Despite the importance of Islam in global affairs and the role of Islamic Studies in Religious Studies little attention has been given to the basic questions of how Islam should be taught This volume brings together a number of leading scholars of Islamic Studies with rich experience in teaching Islam in a diversity of undergraduate settings from large public universities to small private colleges Topics addressed include Islamic law the Quran Sufism women in Islam Islam in America and teaching about Islam through Arabic literature and the use of new information technology Along with providing practical information about structuring courses and assignments the contributors examine the place of Islamic Studies in the larger theoretical framework of Religious Studies and liberal arts curricula Theorizing Islam Aaron W. Hughes, 2014-09-11 The scholarly study of Islam has become ever more insular and apologetic Academic Islamic Studies has tried to maintain a focus on truth authenticity experience and meaning and has effectively avoided discussion of larger social cultural and ideological issues Many scholars of Islam have presented themselves to their colleagues the media and the public as the interpreters of Islam and have done so with an interpretation which tends almost universally to the liberal and egalitarian The ignorance and hostility which the Islamic faith has faced since 9 11 has partly necessitated the taking of such a position But as Theorizing Islam argues the issue remains that only one interpretation of Islam is generally being presented and as with any interpretation this has its own assumptions The aim of Theorizing Islam is to explore the potential for a fuller more honest and more sophisticated approach to both theory and methodology in the academic study of Islam

Islam in Historical Perspective Alexander Knysh, 2024-09-30 Islam in Historical Perspective is a general introduction to Islam and the history of Muslim societies Richly illustrated by quotations and images from Muslim scripture historical chronicles artistic works and theological and juridical treatises it invites the reader to examine this evidence and to form a comprehensive understanding of Islam's evolution from its inception in Arabia to the present day Combining chronological and thematic principles this book examines Muslims political and intellectual struggles over the meaning and practical implications of their faith Treating Islam as a language that various factions and generations of Muslims have used to express their grievances aspirations and personal experiences and preferences the book shows the religion's remarkable potency as a social political and cultural force and source of identity It also describes and analyses Muslim devotional practices emotional responses to the revelation artistic and intellectual creativity and patterns of everyday existence The goal of this book is to help the reader to develop personal empathy for the subject by showing the relevance of the dilemmas faced by Muslims in different epochs and geographical locations to the burning issues of today's world A thorough analysis of pivotal events trends and personalities of Islamic history is accompanied by witness accounts showing how they were perceived by Muslims themselves This new edition features a thoroughly revised text updated bibliography new illustrations study questions and chapter summaries and is an outstanding resource for students of Islam and Muslim civilization

European Intruders and Changes in Behaviour and Customs in Africa, America, and Asia Before 1800 Murdo J. MacLeod, Evelyn Sakakida Rawski, 1998 International contributors in reprinted papers from 1955 1996 overview the European impact in America and Africa ten chapters and the European impact on Asia prior to 1800 nine chapters Reflecting the series revisionist rejoinder to a narrow exploitative Eurocentric focus this volume seeks to compensate by bringing to the fore the cross cultural collaborative dimension of the European activities Diverse topics include the horse in 15th century Senegambia the diffusion of farming in the American Southwest and Great Basin from betel chewing to tobacco smoking in Indonesia hardly an improvement the introduction of American food plants into China and female roles in pre colonial SE Asia Includes two entries in untranslated French and a spartan sprinkling of maps and illustrations Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
