Islamic Veiling In Legal Discourse:

Islamic Veiling in Legal Discourse Anastasia Vakulenko, 2012-09-10 Islamic Veiling in Legal Discourse looks at relevant law and surrounding discourses in order to examine the assumptions and limits of the debates around the issue of Islamic veiling that has become so topical in recent years For some Islamic veiling indicates a lack of autonomy the oppression of women and the threat of Islamic radicalism to western secular values For others it suggests a positive autonomous choice a new kind of gender equality and a legitimate exercise of one's freedom of religion a treasured right in democratic societies This book finds that across seemingly diverse legal and political traditions a set of discursive frameworks the preoccupation with autonomy and choice the imperative of gender equality and a particular western understanding of religion and religious subjectivity shape the positions of both proponents and opponents of various restrictions on Islamic veiling Rather than take a position on one or the other side of the debate the book focuses on the frameworks themselves highlighting their limitations

Lives of Circumcised and Veiled Women Debangana Chatterjee, 2023-08-11 The book unravels the politics of representation and the process of exoticising women's bodies through the prism of external gaze and knowledge production It brings out the intricacies of representational discourses around cultural practices of female circumcision FC female genital cutting FGC and Islamic veiling Focusing on crucial international legal texts and national legislation the book gives an overview of the cultural nuances in FC FGC and juxtaposes it with the Indian variation khafz The author studies the international veiling narratives that conjure up a fractured discourse containing aspects of colonialism Islamophobia and Islamic fashion and maps them with the regional variations of Islamic purdah in India The volume explores the cultural practice of khafz and purdah through narratives in India portraying how representational factors from international discourses reflect on the Indian context and vice versa Amid the world of binaries and polarised opinions the book offers a nuanced analysis of the space in between characterised by narratives from women By situating women's narratives in relation to family community state and international politics the book explores the global Indian interplay of discourses on FC FGC and Islamic veiling This volume will be of interest to scholars students and readers of gender studies feminism cultural and religious studies sociology South Asian studies and International Relations

Un-Veiling Dichotomies Giorgia Baldi, 2021-09-27 This book analyzes the implication of secular liberal values in Western and human rights law and its impact on Muslim women It offers an innovative reading of the tension between the religious and secular spheres The author does not view the two as binary opposites Rather she believes they are twin categories that define specific forms of lives as well as a specific notion of womanhood This divergence from the usual dichotomy opens the doors for a reinterpretation of secularism in contemporary Europe This method also helps readers to view the study of religion vs secularism in a new light It allows for a better understanding of the challenges that contemporary Europe now faces regarding the accommodation of different religious identities For instance one entire section of the book concerns the practice of veiling and explores the contentious headscarf debate It features case studies from Germany France and the UK In addition the analysis combines a wide range of disciplines and employs an integrated comparative and inter disciplinary approach The author successfully brings together arguments from different fields with a comparative legal and political analysis of Western and Islamic law and politics This innovative study appeals to students and researchers while offering an important contribution to the debate over the role of religion in contemporary secular Europe and its impact on women s rights and gender equality

Comparative Law as Critique Günter Frankenberg, 2016-04-29 Presenting a critique of conventional methods in comparative law this book argues that for comparative law to qualify as a discipline comparatists must reflect on how and why they make comparisons Günter Frankenberg discusses not only methods and theories but also the ethical implications and the politics of comparative law in bringing out the different dimensions of the discipline Comparative Law as Critique offers various approaches that turn against the academic discourse of comparative law including analysis of a widespread spirit of innocence in terms of method and critique of human rights narratives It also examines how courts negotiate differences between cases regarding Muslim veiling The incisive critiques and comparisons in this book will be of essential reading for comparatists working in legal education and research as well as students of comparative law and scholars in comparative anthropology and social sciences

Research Handbook on Critical Legal Theory Emiliós Christodoulidis, Ruth Dukes, Marco Goldoni, 2019 Critical theory characteristically linked with the politics of theoretical engagement covers the manifold of the connections between theory and praxis This thought provoking Research Handbook captures the broad range of those connections as far as legal thought is concerned and retains an emphasis both on the politics of theory and on the notion of theoretical engagement The first part examines the question of definition and tracks the origins and development of critical legal theory along its European and North American trajectories The second part looks at the thematic connections between the development of legal theory and other currents of critical thought such as Feminism Marxism Critical Race Theory varieties of post modernism as well as the various turns ethical aesthetic political of critical legal theory The third and final part explores particular fields of law addressing the question how the field has been shaped by critical legal theory or what critical approaches reveal about the field with the clear focus on opportunities for social transformation
