The Regulation of Financial Planning in Australia Angelique Nadia Sweetman McInnes, 2019-08-20 This book investigates the legitimacy of the current Australian Financial Services Licensee Authorised Representative AFSL AR licensing model as specified in the Commonwealth Corporations Act 2001 The book rectifies the deficiency in scholarly attention to this matter by developing a new conceptualised framework for the financial planning discipline It takes into account theories in agency legislation legitimacy and the independent individual regulatory regimes in other professions thereafter integrating this framework with the financial planning theory to examine the legitimacy or what was found to be the illegitimacy of licensing advisers via multiple third party conflicted commercially oriented licensees This book makes a very useful reference to understanding financial planning licencing model in Australia Research Handbook on Asian Financial Law Douglas W. Arner, Wai Yee Wan, Andrew Godwin, Wei Shen, Evan Gibson, 2020-01-31 This comprehensive Research Handbook provides an in depth analysis of the different financial law approaches legal systems and trends throughout Asia It considers how reforms following the crises have been critical for the development and growth of the region and explores a broad range of post crisis financial regulatory issues This timely book also examines how inconsistent and divergent approaches to financial market regulation are curtailing the region's potential What's for Dinner? Jill Griffiths, 2023-05-30 What are we really eating How do we eat in a way that nourishes us and does least harm to the environment What exactly do farmers do Should the world go vegan Do food miles matter Never before has so much food been produced by so few people to feed so many Never before have Australian consumers been so disconnected from their food production yet so interested in how it is done What's for Dinner delves into the way our food is grown and our responsibilities as eaters Weaving together science history and lived experience What's for Dinner takes readers on a journey to meet the plants animals and people who put the food on our plates It's a book for anyone who eats Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Alexa Scarlata, 2025-05-02 The introduction and diffusion of international subscription video on demand SVOD services in the 2010s represented the most significant disruption of established national broadcast and pay TV ecologies in their long history Using an in depth Australian case study this book narrates this profound period of proliferation It also considers how incumbent commercial networks pay TV providers and public service broadcasters developed into online TV providers albeit in assorted ways In so doing it conceives of the early impact of online TV 2015 2020 more broadly and acknowledges the role of both new and old TV players The industry wide shift towards online TV over this period also impacted existing television drama production cultures SVOD services provided a fruitful avenue for the distribution of existing archives and slowly began to support the production of new Australian content with an increasingly global focus However the formal arrival of online TV certainly did not usher in the boom in original local television drama many anticipated Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Australia's Transition advances the macro analysis of television production
