The book includes six sections: Methodologies and structures, presents theories and models for magazine research in an evolving global context; Magazine publishing, the people and the work, introduces the roles and practices of those involved in the editorial and business sides of magazine publishing; Magazines as textual communication, surveys the field of contemporary magazines across a range of theoretical perspectives; subjects, genre, and format, questions Magazines as visual communication, explores cover design, photography, illustrations, and interactivity; Pedagogical and curricular perspectives, offers insights on undergraduate and graduate teaching topics in magazine research; The future of the magazine form, speculates on the changing nature of magazine research via its environmental effects, audience, and transforming platforms. Thinking Through Communication Adam Roth, Brenton Malin, Sarah Trenholm, 2025-04-14 This fully updated tenth edition for hybrid introductory communication courses provides a balanced introduction to the fundamental theories and principles of communication.
