

Displacement potential
(Chapter 1.1 and 1.2 in 1st ed. book)

Number	Question	Answer
1	"I cannot understand how it is that, when I look at the map of the world, I find that the land is not all connected together, but that there are great gaps between the continents. How is it that the land is not all connected together?" (Chapter 1.1)	There is a great deal of water on the earth, and the land is not all connected together. The water is in the form of oceans, seas, and lakes, and it is the water that separates the land into different continents. The land is not all connected together because the water is in the form of oceans, seas, and lakes, and it is the water that separates the land into different continents.
2	"I find it very curious that, when I look at the map of the world, I find that the land is not all connected together, but that there are great gaps between the continents.
