Developing a Law Enforcement Stress Program for Officers and Their Families Peter Finn, Julie Esselman Tomz, 1997
Provides a comprehensive and up to date look at a number of law enforce stress programs that have made serious efforts to help departments individual officers civilian employees and officers families cope with the stresses of a law enforce career
The report is based on 100 interviews with mental health practitioners police administrators union and assoc officials and line officers and their family members Provides pragmatic suggestions that can help every police or sheriff s dep t reduce the debilitating stress that so many officers experience and thereby help these officers do the job they entered law enforcement to perform protect the public Subject Catalog of the Institute of Governmental Studies Library, University of California, Berkeley University of California, Berkeley.
