Kuccps 2015 2016:

Handbook of Research on Modern Educational Technologies, Applications, and Management Khosrow-Pour D.B.A., Mehdi, 2020-07-10 As technology and technological advancements become a more prevalent and essential aspect of daily and business life educational institutions must keep pace in order to maintain relevance and retain their ability to adequately prepare students for their lives beyond education Such institutions and their leaders are seeking relevant strategies for the implementation and effective use of new and upcoming technologies and leadership strategies to best serve students and educators within educational settings As traditional education methods become more outdated strategies to supplement and bolster them through technology and effective management become essential to the success of institutions and programs The Handbook of Research on Modern Educational Technologies Applications and Management is an all encompassing two volume scholarly reference comprised of 58 original and previously unpublished research articles that provide cutting edge multidisciplinary research and expert insights on advancing technologies used in educational settings as well as current strategies for administrative and leadership roles in education Covering a wide range of topics including but not limited to community engagement educational games data management and mobile learning this publication provides insights into technological advancements with educational applications and examines forthcoming implementation strategies These strategies are ideal for teachers instructional designers curriculum developers educational software developers and information technology specialists looking to promote effective learning in the classroom through cutting edge learning technologies new learning theories and successful leadership tactics Administrators educational leaders educational policymakers and other education professionals will also benefit from this publication by utilizing the extensive research on managing educational institutions and providing valuable training and professional development initiatives as well as implementing the latest administrative technologies Additionally academicians researchers and students in areas that include but are not limited to educational technology academic leadership mentorship learning environments and educational support systems will benefit from the extensive research compiled within this publication The Elusive African Renaissance George Klay Kieh, Jr., 2018-08-28 Africa faces several major development challenges that have adversely affected the political and material well being of the majority of the people living there This collection of new essays rigorously analyzes those frontier development issues including democracy leadership the economy poverty alleviation through microfinance schemes food security education health and political instability and offers prescriptions that differ from the dominant neoliberal solutions The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020-02-14 Kenya is one of the most politically dynamic and influential countries in sub Saharan Africa Today it is known in equal measure as a country that has experienced great highs and tragic lows In the 1960s and 1970s Kenya was seen as a success story of development in the periphery and also led the way in terms of democratic breakthroughs in 2010

when a new constitution devolved power and placed new constraints on the president However the country has also made international headlines for the kind of political instability that occurs when electoral violence is expressed along ethnic lines such as during the Kenya crisis of 2007/08 when over 1 000 people lost their lives and almost 700 000 were displaced The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics explains these developments and many more drawing together 50 specially commissioned chapters by leading researchers The chapters they have contributed address a range of essential topics including the legacy of colonial rule ethnicity land politics devolution the constitution elections democracy foreign aid the informal economy civil society human rights the International Criminal Court the growing influence of China economic policy electoral violence and the impact of mobile phone technology In addition to covering some of the most important debates about Kenyan politics the volume provides an insightful overview of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day and features a set of chapters that review the impact of devolution on regional politics in every part of the country

Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian, Brian J. Hrac, Lauren England, 2020-11-04

The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be donated to the not for profit organisation The Craft and Design Institute CDI <https://www.thecdi.org.za> in South Africa supporting capacity building for young creative practitioners from disadvantaged backgrounds
