Williams, Shasha Cui, 2021-08-19 This volume brings together leading experts from eight countries the USA Canada China Japan Sweden India Azerbaijan and Nigeria to discuss how national conditions and institutions have shaped initial policy responses to COVID 19 These decisions and actions will have lasting effects on higher education in different national contexts The book offers solutions to common pedagogical problems such as Zoom fatigue compassion fatigue and lack of student engagement It also addresses techniques and support for online teaching and learning including methods to most efficiently utilize technology The combination of timeliness and international perspectives makes the volume a necessary addition to educators libraries In addition the framing of COVID 19 responses in terms of their international context and institutional cultures provides a new perspective and unique contribution to the literature for researchers higher education administrators and policy makers alike      Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women's interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa

Sustainable Transformation in African Higher Education Felix Maringe, Emmanuel Ojo, 2017-04-18 The book is a must read for policy makers academics university administrators and post graduate research students in the broad field of education and in higher education studies in particular The book brings together a wealth of information regarding the imperatives of transformation in Africa's higher education systems Not only do some of the chapters provide critical discussion about the conceptualisation of transformation the majority of the chapters reflect on empirical evidence for transformation in diverse fields of mathematics science gender the training of doctoral students and the governance and management of universities This central theme of sustainable change and reform runs across the chapters of the book For students the book provides exemplars of practical research in higher education For scholars in higher education and policy makers specific issues for reform are identified and discussed

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 3, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Changing Education Education in the Pandemic Sustaining University Education and Embracing the Future in a Global World It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya Taking a comparative approach the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States United Kingdom Canada South Africa India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya s 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality

Gender Inequalities Esra Ozdenerol,2021-02-22 Gender inequality is entrenched in the cultural political and market systems that operate at household community and national levels Global changes in market access climatic conditions and the availability of natural resources intensify disparities in income in assets and in power among genders This book aims to explain these gender dynamics at macro and micro levels through GIS and spatial analysis The first part of the book introduces key concepts of how to integrate GIS in gender inequality research The second part presents more in depth case studies carefully selected such as mapping gender based violence gender inequality in the labor force refugee mapping etc
