Jonathan Kozol Amazing Grace Chapter Summaries:

A Theology as Big as the City Raymond J. Bakke, 2025-07-29 As we look at the world class cities around our planet we face five new urban realities a crack cocaine epidemic assault weapons massive numbers of homeless children HIV AIDS and in the U S what Time magazine has called the browning of America The needs of the urban population are greater than ever As our cities swell with immigrants I m reminded that Jesus was born in a borrowed barn in Asia and became an African refugee in Egypt so the Christmas story is about an international migrant Furthermore a whole village full of baby boys died for Jesus before he had the opportunity to die for them on the cross Surely this Jesus understands the pain of children who die for the sins of adults in our cities How does God see the city What does Scripture have to say about urban ministry These are the questions Ray Bakke has systematically addressed beginning with Genesis and continuing through to Revelation Here is a biblical theology that will constantly surprise and challenge as you get a glimpse of how big God s view of the city really is

The Skeptical, Passionate Christian Michael F. Duffy, 2006-01-01 In the tone of a much loved college chaplain Duffy takes readers through a personal theological journey exploring what it means to discern and live out a thoughtful informed and responsible faith

Reading, Writing, and Justice James W. Fraser, 1997-01-01 This is a book for teachers parents and other concerned citizens who care about public education who want schools to be democratic in the best sense and who seek argumentative ammunition for defending schools and for placing school issues within the larger framework of the long struggle to keep and expand democracy in the United States

Walking on the Waves Mark Shaw, 2001 Interest in New Age philosophy and Eastern religions has boomed in the last few decades yet the growl of spiritual hunger pains is louder than ever Shaw brilliantly contrasts mystic and moral models of spirituality with the Jesus model Theology and the doctrine of Christ uniquely blend with captivating narratives guiding readers to a deeper encounter with the living Christ

Book Review Digest , 1999

Restorers of Hope Amy L. Sherman, 2004-11-04 It s easy to get discouraged at the reports of continuing decay in our inner cities and impoverished rural areas Yet in the midst of the dark realities some churches are transforming lives and reclaiming communities through effective holistic ministries Restorers of Hope tells their stories and identifies the keys to their success And it goes further by challenging churches to take up Christ s command to love your neighbor and offering specific practical guidance on how to reach out By understanding the challenges of persistent poverty and the opportunities afforded by welfare reform you and your church will be better equipped to engage in redemptive ministry that presents the gospel as the true solution

Sharing Care Robert Ziegler, Andrew Bush, 2013-05-13 A clinician faces a multitude of considerations when assessing a child patient Foremost among these is that caring for the child entails caring for the family members involved with that child The therapist must balance the competing needs and feelings of the child parents and family as a whole By forming an alliance with all members of the family the therapist is in a position to strengthen and enhance the ties between child parents and family during all phases of assessment and treatment leading to a more effective therapeutic intervention Paving the Way for Children's Success offers a model that will help clinicians achieve this alliance The model presented in this book focuses on ways to integrate child assessment and treatment with that of their parents and families level of function It uses the authors unique concept of the Zones of Care to help clinicians assess this level of function In turn each of the four zones leads to a specific approach to treatment The authors present how these treatment approaches to current internalizing and externalizing disorders in children and adolescents allow clinicians to integrate a wide variety of techniques to address most DSM IV categories Their approach stresses both symptom reduction and the cultivation of coping skills It also integrates fiscal issues of treatment into the development of the alliance with the parents in resolving the presenting problem Dr Ziegler and Dr Bush present the reader with practical workable strategies for laying down strong diagnostic foundations for successful treatment making Paving the Way for Children's Success a valuable resource for any clinician working with children and adolescents

Delivering Human Services Alexis A. Halley, Judy Kopp, Michael J. Austin, 1998 This unique self instructional text involves students in the learning process and helps them develop and apply the skills needed for working with people It presents comprehensive coverage of major practice areas brokering consumer advocacy mobilizing interviewing case management relationship building and assessment Encouraging students to view people in a positive way with the ability to change the fourth edition contains a new chapter on managing the transition to new service delivery systems updated material on clinical methods revised material on policy practice and updated cases that reflect a stronger emphasis on diversity

Place Matters Peter Dreier, John H. Mollenkopf, Todd Swanstrom, 2004 Analyzes the problematic trends facing America's cities and older suburbs and challenges us to put America's urban crisis back on the national agenda

Bridges Out of Poverty Ruby K. Payne, Philip E. DeVol, Terie Dreussi Smith, 2001 Bridges Out of Poverty takes the concepts of hidden rules of economic class and uses them to educate social workers employers and community organizations about the unique and sometimes hidden obstacles that individuals from poverty face Strategies help improve services for clients raise retention rates for new hires from poverty and increase understanding of the differences in economic cultures and how those differences affect opportunities for success of Everyday Spaces offers a conceptual framework for thinking politically about place and space in an era in which globalization seems to be destabilizing places and transforming spaces at an unprecedented rate and scale Responding critically to the tendencies within contemporary political theory to dismiss places as inherently confining spaces author Alexandra Kogl explores the roles that places play in supporting a democratic politics of efficacy and resistance Using concrete examples and cases this interdisciplinary work is accessible to a broad scholarly audience including political theory urban affairs geography and sociology scholars

Strange Places Alexandra Kogl, 2007-12-05 Strange Places The Political Potentials and Perils

Redeeming the Time Stephen B. Scharper, 1997 What is the proper role of humans in light of the ecological crisis After a sympathetic and critical analysis of the principal answers to that question Stephen Scharper argues that only a religious point of view seeing human agency as central to both the devastation and the reclamation of planetary life is viable Such a view must include social economic cultural as well as theological transformation in order to be effective in confronting threats to the ecosystem Among the principal answers or paradigms assessed by this book are the new cosmology ecofeminism process thought Gaia theory and liberation theology Each of these recognizes the role of the human in the present environmental crisis But each of these also approaches the human problematic in incomplete or inadequate ways Thus Redeeming the Time is both an examination of the state of the question and a constructive effort at building among the various current paradigms and remedying or redeeming their inadequacies
