The Oxford Handbook of International Business Strategy Kamel Mellahi, Klaus Meyer, Rajneesh Narula, Irina Surdu, Alain Verbeke, 2021-01-07 The growth of the multinational enterprise MNE has led to an increasing interest in international business strategy from scholars professionals and policy makers alike MNEs must contend with challenges in both their home and host international markets and increasingly uncertain conditions in the international business environment demand superior firm level capabilities for multinational firms to achieve and maintain competitive advantages in the long run This Handbook explores the progress made in international business strategy theory and practice in the last few decades Written by an international team of leading experts it captures the differences in motivations and decision making processes between smaller and larger firms private family and state owned firms and emerging or developed market multinationals It elaborates on the links between international strategy and the social responsibilities of the firm in its various host market contexts including the deployment of effective and ethical human resource practices in international markets Most importantly it lays out how the classic principles of international competitive strategy are transformed in today's markets in great part due to digitalization and provides suggestions on how MNEs can develop international business strategies to respond to these transformations The implications of these discussions for strategy and practice are becoming ever more profound This Handbook will prove a valuable resource for both international business scholars and practitioners

Language in International Business Mary Yoko Brannen, Terry Mughan, 2016-11-07 Tracing the treatment of language in international business as represented in the Journal of International Business Studies this seminal collection critically explores the conceptualizations of language that have been adopted or ignored by international business scholars over the years and showcases nine articles that have played an important role in establishing and advancing the field In today's increasingly globalized context of business significantly richer theories from interdisciplinary perspectives are needed to explain the complexity of the interplay between multiple facets of language and how they affect day to day operations With insights from linguistics psychology and organizational theory Language in International Business provides an assessment of scholarly efforts to uncover the profound impact that language has on global business today and proposes some important ways in which this nascent field of language in international business may be further advanced Chapter 9 is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivs 3.0 Unported License The Journal of International Business Studies JIBS is an official publication of the Academy of International Business and is the top ranked journal in the field of international business The goal of JIBS is to publish insightful innovative and impactful research on international business JIBS is multidisciplinary in scope and interdisciplinary in content and methodology For more information visit www.jibs.net The Academy of International Business AIB is the leading association of scholars and specialists in the field of international business A global community of scholars and researchers for the creation and dissemination of knowledge about international business and policy issues the AIB transcends the boundaries of single academic disciplines and managerial functions to enhance business education and practice For more information visit aib.msu.edu

Location of International Business Activities Academy of International Business, 2014-12-02 In recent years an extensive range of new research has been revisiting the topic of the location of international business activities from a variety of different perspectives and background interests This work has been inspired in part by two apparently quite different but actually related contemporary trends on the one hand an emergence or revitalization of clusters of activities co located in or around selected global city regions or fast growing metropolitan areas and on the other hand an increased global dispersion of activities conducted within the value chains managed or coordinated by many large multinational enterprises and their business partners The former trend has given rise to discussions of how the elite of the cultural cognitive economy of the 21st century in Allen Scott's terminology or the creative class Richard Florida's term are now being drawn or brought back to major urban centers while the latter trend is associated with debates over outsourcing and the economic and social consequences of shifts in the ownership and location of distinct nodes of value chains once production systems become more fragmented and the component parts of such systems become more geographically dispersed An increased interest in the subject of international business location has been shown by scholars in Strategic Management in Economic Geography and in Regional Science as well as in our own interdisciplinary field of International Business Studies However as is often the case in academic research communities these bodies of scholarship have tended to develop at something of a distance from one another each conversing internally more than they have with one another Location of International Business Activities aims to promote a greater conversation between those interested in the topic of Location from various different backgrounds or starting points The articles are taken from a special issue on the theme of the Multinational in Geographic Space which was published by The Journal of International Business Studies in 2013
