Journalism And Mass Communication Fiu:

Women in Mass Communication Pamela J. Creedon, Judith Cramer, 2007 The effect of feminism on the field of mass communication is more important now than ever With a particular emphasis on race culture and ethnicity leading scholars in the field provide compelling analyses of the ways in which feminist theory and feminist perspectives affect mass communication

Journalism & Mass Communication Directory, 2007 Mass Media Education in Transition Thomas Dickson, 1999-08-01 Media educators have long been debating the nature and purpose of media education Issues relating to new technologies and the changing state of the media industry are ongoing concerns but some of the most difficult questions go to the actual structure of media education itself Is it best represented as an integrated field Should it merge with other communication subfields or potentially split into several separate fields Media practitioners complicate matters further by questioning the necessity for media education at all The continued consideration of and reaction to these issues will have a significant effect on media related education and its associated practices In Mass Media Education in Transition Thomas Dickson gives careful consideration to the state of media education and its future directions He provides a history of mass media related education as well as an overview of the major issues affecting media education at the end of the 20th century He incorporates the visions of media education leaders as to the possible directions the field may take in the next century and includes in his discussion information that has been previously unknown or not readily available to media educators This volume provides a broad view of the major issues affecting all aspects of media education print and broadcast journalism advertising public relations and media studies It also offers detailed insights as to the possibilities that lie ahead as the field continues to develop a new professionalism or a return to a prior vision of media related education or possibly something quite different

Communication in Latin America Richard R. Cole, 1996 The twelve essays written exclusively for this publication examine either an aspect of the mass media in the region or the media in a particular country during a number of stages of its political development
