Every young man and young woman, every business man, farmer and mechanic, every housewife and lady of society, in fact every intelligent member of the community should have it within reach for consultation on those numerous minor matters that a well-educated person is supposed to know. The Reading Public has been amply supplied for years with reference books of every description, but the present volume may be said to occupy a field peculiarly its own as the people have never before been furnished with a publication embracing in a single volume such a quantity of practical information and treating the wants of every day life in a lucid, instructive and agreeable manner. Such articles as Elocution, Penmanship, Book-keeping, Letter-writing, Mercantile Law, Music, Stenography, Phrenology, Agriculture, Social Etiquette, Out-door Sports, In-door Amusements, Physical Culture, The Domestic Circle, Household Receipts, Parliamentary Law, etc. have been prepared by writers of reputation and large experience in the special subjects given them for treatment.
