This is a 8 000 words EROTIC stand alone story with an HEA so no cliff hangers Anne s father Lord Furston is a man who is set in his ways He is conservative and has become even more so since the death of Anne s mother He uses his routine as a comfort to ease her passing The only thorn in his side is that his daughter is still not married He arranges for her to marry Lord Bourne a man about his own age but with a great wealth Anne agrees to meet with the Lord though she does not like the idea It is not the Lord himself that makes an impression on Anne but his son Drake When Drake declares his undying love for Anne she must make a decision Does she make her father happy and accept an easy life as Lord Bourne s wife Or does she choose Drake It is no easy choice EXCERPT FROM BOOK Anne remained quiet much of the next morning as she and her father each busily prepared for their trip to Woford Lord Furston interpreted his daughter s silence as an acquiescence He thought she had come to her senses and realized that he had her best interest at heart and that being married to a powerful Lord like Lord Bourne would be good for her life Lord Furston was dreadfully incorrect on all accounts Anna was thinking very deeply as her maid helped her get ready Her hair was plaited and she was squeezed into a bulky gown Anne felt that she looked her best in a simple house dress but the situation called for more formal attire She had ribbons put in her hair and her face powdered Her maid chattered away about how lucky she was and how Lord Bourne s servants spoke most highly of his character Anne was polite to her maid whom she cared for dearly but she did not expose the contents of her heart Anne Furston was considering running away She was not starry eyed She understood that if she ran away she would be required to become a seamstress a governess or some labor intensive position This did not frighten her Her privileged existence had not rendered her incapable of labor and in fact delighted in helping the servants whenever her father did not take care to notice. It was undoubtedly a radical idea to consider but she felt that her father was pushing her to it. She could not marry a man her father's age no matter how kind and generous he was. She was a believer in romantic love and although she was not seeking to be married she had not ruled out the possibility of falling in love. She had seen the way her parents loved each other and she wanted to emulate such a love. She had assumed her father would respect those wishes despite his conservatism and it was possible that had her mother lived this might have been true. But her father was very changed and very serious about her marrying against her will. She had a plan.

AUTHOR'S NOTE: This is a 8 000 word stand alone story with an HEA so no cliff hangers. Story contains mature themes and language and is intended for 18 readers only. A Lady's Point of View

Jacqueline Diamond, 2011-08-15 Being nearsighted in Regency era London isn't a crime but it feels like one to a young lady in disgrace. Meg Linley can barely see and is forbidden to wear spectacles. When she accidentally cuts the prince's friend Beau Brummell at a ball the scandal sends her packing to the countryside. Her faulty eyesight causes her to enter the wrong coach which delivers her to the estate of handsome Lord Bryn. He mistakes her for the governess who was due to arrive from London. Preferring work to a life of isolation she goes along with the erroneous impression and can't help adoring his mischievous orphaned niece and nephew. When Meg begins falling in love with the handsome lord just as he's about to become engaged to another woman however she can't see a way out of her dilemma. This is a lighthearted tale in the traditional Regency romance style no sex but plenty of romantic complications and a happy ending. Ms Diamond is one of the most consistently enjoyable Regency authors around. Melinda Helfer Romantic Times magazine Cover by customgraphics etsy.com

Sophia's Spirited Spinster's Society Charlotte Stone, 2020 The Deceptive Duke of Salston Fable Charm Historical, Kathy Heart, 2019-02-04 Why should a man's social standing matter if he is honorable and kind and if he loves you? Why shouldn't you marry for love instead of money? Twenty one year old Lady Harriet Hampstead dubbed the Ice Queen wants nothing to do with the men who pursue her. When her father is killed in a riding accident Harriet must submit to her mother's expectation that she marry the Duke of Salston. Will she be forced to tie herself to a man she doesn't love? Does the woman he has plans to woo have a warm heart or is she really only interested in his money? The man Lady Harriet thinks is Lord Caleb De Vere the Duke of Salston doesn't seem to cut as fine a figure as the suitors who have come before him. He is too old for starters and not much into conversation. But he is a good judge of character. He knows who Lady Harriet really wants to marry and it isn't him. How will Harriet and the Duke overcome the obstacles in their way? He is guilty of deception and she is bound by duty. And then there's her sister Catherine who does everything in her power to derail their relationship. Can they ever find a way to be happy together? The Deceptive Duke of Salston is a clean 50 000 word Regency romance story with a happily ever after.

The Derbyshire Set Arietta Richmond, 2016-01-11 A delightful romance series in the tradition of Regency Historical Romance at its best This is a single volume omnibus edition of the first three stories of the Derbyshire Set series be sure to read all six Find out what happens in the lives of all your favorite characters

- 1 The Earl's Unexpected Bride Miss Catherine Thornberry led a quiet life teaching in the parish school Until the day that the Earl of Stanningfield knocked her into the river And then employed her as governess to his niece It was immediately obvious to both Catherine and the Earl as their desires overcame them that they wanted a relationship rather different than that of employer and employee There was just one impediment to their romance one very large impediment even more significant than the difference in their stations
- 2 The Captain's Compromised Heiress After the disgrace of a wedding that did not quite succeed in happening Lady Blanchette was finally ready to consider speaking to gentlemen again She had not expected to meet two interesting men at once during her parent's house party Nor had she expected seduction and disreputable behavior Can she save her reputation and still have the man that she has come to love Or will her moment of irresponsible passion doom her to ruin
- 3 The Viscount's Unsuitable Affair Anna Perkins needed her job as a maid at Havisham Hall home of the Earl of Stanningfield to survive but one small accident was enough to put everything at risk including her heart Spilling a tray of jellies all over a member of the aristocracy was definitely not what she had set out to do The fact that the gentleman in question was kind to her and was in addition quite the most handsome man that she had ever met was more difficult to deal with than cruelty might have been Richard Maitland Viscount Bellham was instantly captivated by the beautiful maid he collided with in the corridor jellies notwithstanding Something about her fascinated him and raised his desire in a way that the husband hunting young ladies of the aristocracy did not A rather annoying thing for him to discover given that dallying with the lower classes was not on his agenda and might even get him disinherited should his family discover it But love and desire have no respect for how things should be and sometimes fate intervenes with an unexpected outcome The Earl and the Spinster Collette
