generation      You Gotta Laugh to Keep From Cryin' Sam Venable, 2024-08-09 Sam Venable is one of America's seventy six million Baby Boomers who are turning into their parents. He can't quite see without his reading glasses; he thinks the music kids listen to these days is nothing but a loud racket and his belt is mysteriously creeping up higher and higher on his chest. The way Venable figures it, he's roaring along the road at about twenty seven miles per hour, the average speed for someone his age to Codgerville. You Gotta Laugh to Keep From Cryin' highlights the observations and lifestyle changes and a few other things he can't quite seem to remember at the moment that Venable has made along the way. From the day his wife discovers his first ear hair, Venable begins to recognize the signs of old age. Though he had reconciled himself to daily fiber and a distinguished head of gray, he is one step further to an insatiable desire for cafeteria food and permanently leaving his car's right turn signal flashing. The news isn't all bad though. To his surprise, Venable discovers that his new appearance and habits have qualified him for the senior discount on breakfast at his favorite restaurant. After reading about a scientific study concluding that men's brains shrink faster than women's in the normal aging process, Venable has a new source of excuses to explain to his wife why he is missing important dates, times, places, and appointments. As an official CIT (Codger In Training), Venable delights in other newfound freedoms. He can stand in a fast food line and stare at the menu for a full two minutes without saying a word, besides he can't hear the people behind him grumbling. He can drive as slowly as he likes and has perfected the art of maintaining a death grip on the steering wheel of his car. And he really doesn't have to listen to anyone anymore; he can merely turn their way from time to time and mumble "Huh." From the swinging doors whose Push/Pull directions elude him to the high tech mysteries of ATMs designed to baffle the elderly, Sam Venable's rollicking view of life after fifty will leave readers laughing and happy to be a member of the AARP set. The Author, Sam Venable, recognized for his humor writing in 2000, 2001, and 2002 by the Tennessee Press Association, is a columnist for the Knoxville News Sentinel. He is the author of a number of books including Rock Elephant: A Story of Friendship and Fishing and Mountain Hands: A Portrait of Southern Appalachia. He lives in Knoxville, Tennessee.
