Bringing Classes into the

Public Library Martha Seif Simpson,Lucretia I. Duwel,2015-01-24 With so much competing for the time of today s students youth services librarians have an especially challenging job How can they reach their target audience One of the surest ways is the promotion through the local school system of a series of class visits to the public library But where to begin Choosing a grade level contacting school officials and teachers and planning age appropriate programs are among the many steps that librarians must take but may feel unprepared for Encouraging the collaboration of professionals in public libraries and local schools this comprehensive guide presents a detailed framework for a versatile program of class visits Written by two public librarians with firsthand experience it describes in a step by step format how to accomplish a structured series of class visits The book addresses procedures planning and implementation and offers suggestions for both elementary and secondary school visits Informational packets and other print materials are provided for each level Possible challenges are discussed with thoughts on their impact on the overall program and ways to find workable solutions The appendices contains easily adaptable templates including sample schedules letters to teachers and evaluation forms
