

What Is Irony?

Irony is a rhetorical device that is used to express an intended meaning by using language that conveys the opposite meaning when taken literally.

Irony is a literary and rhetorical device, in which there is a discrepancy between what is expected and what actually occurs or is meant. It can be verbal irony, where a speaker says something but means the opposite, or situational irony, where there is an incongruity between what is expected to happen and what actually happens. Irony is often used to create humor or to make a point about the nature of a situation.
