Islam Straight Path Esposito 4th Edition:

Islam John L. Esposito, 1988 The world's largest religion Islam is also one of the fastest growing and most politically potent yet its nature remains obscure to many westerners despite its common theological and historical roots with Judaism and Christianity Combining the finest Western scholarship with an insider's understanding of the Muslim world this book provides a brief yet comprehensive introduction to the faith belief and practice of Islam from the seventh century to the contemporary resurgence Drawing on his extensive experience traveling researching and teaching in the Muslim world John L. Esposito records the struggle of Muslims to define and follow their way of life through the development of Islamic law theology mysticism and philosophy bringing his discussion to life with excerpts from a wide range of original sources Written for a broad audience Islam The Straight Path addresses the powerful and pervasive role of Islam in modern Muslim life and the issues that Islam faces avoiding simplified political generalizations about the contemporary scene Completely up to date this book is indispensable to understanding the Islamic world during this turbulent and important period in its history

Understanding World Religions David Whitten Smith, Elizabeth Geraldine Burr, 2014-08-21 Understanding World Religions introduces students to major worldviews including Hindu Buddhist Muslim Jewish Christian Native American and Marxist through the lens of justice and peace The second edition has been updated and revised throughout After an introduction to key themes in studying world religion chapters help students explore major traditions today Each chapter takes a similar approach examining several dimensions of each tradition experiential and emotional social and institutional narrative or mythic doctrinal and philosophical practical and ritual and ethical and legal Chapters feature profiles of major peacemakers or groups to bring the traditions to life Profiles range from Gandhi and Martin Luther King to Thich Nhat Hanh and Dorothy Day Further chapters explore liberation theologies active nonviolence and just war theory The second edition features a broader framework than the first edition and includes new material on non religious ethical norms Islamophobia colonial evangelization religion in China and an updated examination of the Israel Palestine conflict Understanding World Religions remains a powerful introduction to major worldviews with an emphasis on practical connections to peace and justice

The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali, 2024-09-17 The interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies and how to shift professional norms toward parity Despite remarkable shifts in the demographics of Islamic studies in recent decades the field continues to be dominated by men who often relegate other scholars and their work particularly research on gender to its periphery while treating subfields in which men predominate as more rigorous and central In The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali explores the interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies Examining publications citations curricula and media representations Ali finds that despite the growth and depth of scholarship on Islam and gender men continue to overlook women's scholarship even in work that purports to discuss gender issues Moreover media and social media dynamics make talking about Islam and Muslims for broader audiences especially fraught for scholars who are not men particularly when the topic is gender or sexuality Combining broad surveys with more focused analyses of a smaller set of texts Ali shows that textbooks and syllabi continue to exclude women as historical actors and scholars and to marginalize gender and sexuality as subject matter Finally she provides a Beginner's Guide to Eradicating Sexism in Islamic Studies offering practical strategies to help scholars avoid common pitfalls in their own work and contribute to broader professional transformations

The Sacred Paths Theodore M. Ludwig, 2001 For courses in Religions of the World History of Religions Comparative Religion and Introduction to Religious Studies in departments of Religion Religious Studies Theology and Philosophy Unique in approach this text combines an historical descriptive presentation of individual religions with a comparative thematic approach It begins with a discussion of the basic human questions and concerns relating to religion e.g. origin and identity ultimate reality human nature and the good life and then uses these essential concepts to help describe the beliefs practices and historical development of each religion As the work of a single scholar much of it based on original research this book offers a consistency and depth missing in many of the texts in this field

Notable Muslims Natana J. DeLong-Bas, 2006 From political leaders and human rights activists to rap musicians and NBA basketball stars this diverse collection of profiles documents the contributions of fifty male and fifty female Muslims to a wide variety of different fields and professions As an exploration and celebration of what it means to be a Muslim today it offers a colourful and vibrant counterpoint to the stereotypes of religious fundamentalists and masked suicide bombers that have become all too commonplace in Western representations of Islam Notable Muslims is unique among works of a similar nature in its contemporary focus eighty five of the one hundred figures profiled are alive today and many have been interviewed personally by Natana DeLong Bas for this project With a complete set of references and web links for every profile this meticulously researched work will provide an indispensable resource for students and teachers and a rich source of inspiration for all those committed to building bridges of interfaith and intercultural understanding in the modern world

BOOK JACKET Islam and Politics John L. Esposito, 1998-08 Provides the historical background and context necessary for understanding the politics in Moslem countries and the role of Islam in them The second edition was in 1988 the first in 1984 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Islam Solomon Alexander Nigosian, 2004 This compact introduction to Islam encapsulates the essential aspects of Islam as a living religion and social force The book is organized around seven topics the life of Muhammad Islamic political development and territorial expansion the important groupings of Islamic believers Sunni Shi'ite and Sufi the Qur'an the Holy Book of Islam Sunnah Hadith the record of the Prophet's actions and sayings and Shari'ah the compilation of Islamic law the five Articles of Faith and the so called Five Pillars of Islam that govern faith and action and other binding religious observances and festivals The presentation of these seven aspects of Islam strikes a balance between fact tradition current interpretation and commentary S. A. Nigosian underscores two fundamental points that to understand

Islam properly it is necessary to see it as a major faith tradition with Muhammad as the last of a series of messengers sent by God and that to grasp the spirit of Islam one must recognize its emphasis on an uncompromising monotheism with strict adherence to certain social political and religious practices as taught by the Prophet and elaborated by tradition

Counseling American Muslims Ahmed Kobeisy, 2004-04-30 Within two months of the terrorists destruction of the Twin Towers 1 400 hate crimes against Muslims ranging from assaults to murder and bomb threats had been reported across this country Although it is the fastest growing religion in the world and some believe it will become the United States second largest religious group by 2010 the Muslim community is little understood in this country Author Kobeisy explains the range of true Muslim faith shows us how unfair discrimination threatens and scars the mental health of American Muslims and also demonstrates what counselors teachers social workers and other helping professionals can do to understand the faith as well as help these people recover to live strong in the face of prejudice Includes a quiz and true and false self test on knowledge of Muslims and Islam and sections on how depiction of Muslims in the media colors mass perceptions Includes vignettes of Muslims in counseling and a glossary of Muslim and Islam terms This work will appeal to counselors mental health and social workers family therapists sociologist anthropologists teachers school counselors psychologists and school psychologists

The Muslim World Book Review, 2002 Islam and the French Decolonization of Algeria Said Ali Alghailani, 2002 The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World John L. Esposito, 1995 This unique reference is the first comprehensive encyclopedia dedicated to the institutions religion politics and culture in Muslim societies throughout the world Placing particular emphasis on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World contains over 750 articles in four volumes The focus throughout is on the Islamic dimension of the Muslim experience in recent history and background articles ground the information in its historical context and ensure continuity Entries address political and social action as well as formal texts and emphasis is placed on the practice and theory of Islam in Muslim societies around the globe Unlike more limited explorations of Islam this work looks at Muslim societies in the Arab heartland as well as in South and Southeast Asia and even in Europe and the Americas Thus it is an invaluable resource offering extensive comparative and systematic analyses of Islamic beliefs institutions movements practices and peoples on an international scale Topical categories covered include history and geography schools of thought religious beliefs theology and philosophy mysticism religious practice devotionism and ritual religious law politics economics culture and society and biographies Alphabetically arranged articles range from brief 500 word essays to major interpretive and synthetic treatments of topics such as the Islamic state pilgrimage law marriage and foreign relations Related entries cover such topics as social and political movements women Muslim minorities human rights Islam in the West and interreligious affairs Truly multidisciplinary this work reflects the breadth and depth of contemporary scholarship in Islamic studies combining the tools of the humanities and social sciences to examine the interrelationship of religion politics and culture in Muslim societies and to explain the changing realities of Muslim life Designed for easy use by both scholars and students the work has an index and an extensive system of cross references that provide easy access to the network of related articles throughout the encyclopedia Entries are written by Muslim and non Muslim scholars from around the world Unique in its focus on the modern Islamic world this encyclopedia is an invaluable reference for anyone concerned with Islam scholars and students of many disciplines government and media analysts who increasingly require an understanding of the Muslim world and interested lay readers who are becoming more and more familiar with Islamic politics and culture

Church and State in Historical Perspective James E. Wood, 2005-05-30 The subject of church and state is one intimately associated with the history of Christianity and Western civilization However the subject is one that is by no means limited to any one religious tradition civilization or period of history Rather it is a subject that has historical and universal significance to all cultures and religious traditions throughout the world It is simply undeniable that religion has been and remains a powerful force in the making and shaping of cultures civilizations nations and empires For this reason this volume addresses the broader perspectives of religion and the state in the ancient world as well as in the biblical world of Judaism and Christianity and in other religious traditions than Christianity Attention is given to general works on church and state that treat the subject broadly not limited to any particular nation religious tradition or single aspect of church state relations Additionally there is material on major topics integrally related to church and state such as civil disobedience civil religion liberation theology patriotism and nationalism Finally sources are included on religion in international affairs and interfaith relations both necessarily linked to the subject of church and state as well as religion and the economic order religion and human rights and the effect of religion on war and peace text combines study of the dynamic historical development of each religious tradition with a comparative thematic structure. Students are encouraged to discover and explore the nature of religious experience by comparing basic themes and issues common to all religions, finding connections with their own personal experiences. By sensitively introducing descriptive material within a comparative thematic structure, this text helps students to understand how each religion provides for its adherents patterns and meanings that make up a full way of life from Amazon.

Education about Asia, 1996. The Government And Politics Of The Middle East And North Africa, Fourth Edition David Long, Bernard Reich, 2002-04-08. Rapid social, economic, and political change is endemic to the Middle East and is often more revolutionary than evolutionary in nature. In many ways, the entire political landscape of the Middle East has been transformed in the past decade in the realm of both international relations and domestic politics. The collapse of the Soviet Union, the end of the cold war, and the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait have all had a profound effect on relations among states within the region and between those states and countries outside the region. In this revised edition, Long and Reich provide comprehensive and up-to-date analyses of many critical contemporary events and issues. The contributors explain how Desert Storm isolated Iraq and brought Syria back into the mainstream of Arab politics, contributing to the revival of the Arab-Israeli peace process. They also show how the return of a Labor government in Israel has allowed the peace process to go forward. Evaluating the economic costs of the Kuwait war and the continuing oil glut, the authors find that resulting changes in the domestic economies of the oil-producing states have created additional pressures for social and political change. The most profound change in government and politics, however, is the rise of Islam as the idiom of political discourse among moderates as well as extremists.

Constructing Sanctity Heidi Amanda Ford, 2000. A Phoenix Rising Ron Duncan Hart, Ronald J. Duncan-Hart, 2007. This timely book examines the resurgence of the major civilizations of the Middle East, India, and China as they claim their historic places of power and prestige. This book explores the history, culture, religion, ethnic composition, and experience with the West of each of these world regions.
