

Jackson and the Spoils System

After winning an election, the political party rewards government jobs to its voters for working towards victory. Andrew Jackson had planned to replace government officials he saw corrupted with new officials that he believed could restore virtue to the government. Some would start to call this the "Spoils System" after US Senator William Mangum was defending Jackson's actions and stated "to the victors belong the spoils." Jackson defended his right to remove people from government positions to Congress to help the nation achieve its republican ideals.

1- Is the Spoils System a good or bad thing? What benefits and disadvantages come with it?
