Read each of the following statements. Mark True if you agree with the statement, or False if you disagree with the statement. After marking each statement, be prepared to defend why you chose the answer provided during classroom discussion.

#	Statement	True	False
1.	"The apple doesn't fall far from the tree." Children eventually turn out much like their parents.
2.	Even long after someone comes to a new country, they still maintain the same cultural values as when they left.
3.	Family and honor should take priority over the rights of the individual.
4.	Fate plays more of a role in our lives than does individual will and determinism.
5.	Everyone has one or two particular talents that set them apart, and that is what makes them unique and individual.
6.	Parents are always proud of their children, even if they fail.
7.	Managing finances and costs is not one of the most important aspects of a marriage.
8.	Children do not always appreciate the value of their parents' wisdom and advice.
9.	There are some experiences that we have at a young age that affect the rest of our lives.
