interests in statistics about mineral commodities overseas will find this resource invaluable Bombardment, Public Safety and Resilience in English Coastal Communities during the First World War Michael Reeve, 2022-01-01 This book makes the case for a unique coastal urban experience of war on the home front during the First World War focusing on case studies from the north east of England The use of case studies from this region problematises an often assumed national or generalised experience of civilian life during the war by shifting the frame of analysis away from the metropolis This book begins with chapters related to wartime resilience including analysis of pre war fear of invasion and bombardment and government policy on public safety It then moves on to a discussion of power relations and the local implementation of policy related to bombardment including policing Finally the book explores the coastal urban environment focusing on depictions of war damage in popular culture and the wartime and post war commemoration of civilian bombardment This work provides a multi faceted perspective on civilian resilience while responding to a recent call for new histories of the coastal zone

Youth Movements, Citizenship and the English Countryside Sian Edwards, 2017-11-28 This book explores the significance and meaning of the countryside within mid twentieth century youth movements It examines the ways in which the Boy Scouts Girl Guides Woodcraft Folk and Young Farmers Club organisations employed the countryside as a space within which good citizenship in leisure work the home and the community could be developed Mid century youth movements identified the problem of modern youth as a predominantly urban and working class issue They held that the countryside offered an effective antidote to these problems being a good citizen within this context necessitated a respectful and mutually beneficial relationship with the rural sphere Avenues to good citizenship could be found through an enthusiasm for outdoor recreation the stewardship of the countryside and work on the land However models of good citizenship were intrinsically gendered

Literary Translators' Brand-Building in Contemporary Chinese-English Translation Wenqian Zhang, 2025-12-23 This book builds on emerging research into the human dimension of literary translators to illuminate how translators can construct and project their brands Focusing on contemporary Chinese English literary translators it examines the evolution and impact of their brand building within the global literary translation landscape Zhang deftly integrates research on branding from marketing management and publishing studies and the sociology of translation to develop an innovative framework for understanding the literary translator's brand This framework approaches brand building on three interrelated levels intra field brand input inter field brand investment and inter cultural brand reception levels It offers a novel analytical lens that complements and differs from existing tools used to examine literary translators' presence such as visibility translator function the translator's professional status and celebrity translators As applied to the case of three prominent figures in the field of contemporary Chinese English literary translation Howard Goldblatt Nicky Harman and Ken Liu the approach elucidates the multifaceted role literary translators play beyond the translation process and the power of their brand names in the international literary exchanges The book highlights the possibilities for new research on literary translators brand building in other contexts and the fruitfulness of an interdisciplinary approach to literary translation more broadly This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary translation sociology of translation publishing studies and contemporary Chinese literature     United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 1 ,     Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper ,1927     The Annual Index to The Times ,1912     A Dictionary Johann Philipp Fabricius,1910     American Cabinetmaker and Upholsterer ,1925

Jscout English1st 2014: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Jscout English1st 2014 : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Jscout English1st 2014 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
