But why is a handle needed? I'm going to tell you the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Mother had a letter from Sir Gilbert Mantell this morning. Oh, that big splashy crest was his, then. It looked like him now. I come to think of it, nobody but a brand new knight with piles and piles of money would need one more than half the size.

Excerpt from Lady Betty Across the Water: I suppose I shan't be able to decide about the state of my feelings until I've had more of them on the same subject or until I've written down in this book of mine everything exactly as it's happened. I like doing that; it makes things seem so clear when you try to review them afterwards.

Lady Betty Across the Water C. N. Williamson, A. M. Williamson, 2020-04-16 I don't know yet whether I'm pleased or not, but I do know that I'm excited more excited than I've ever been in my life except perhaps when Miss Mackinstry, my last governess, had hysterics in the schoolroom and fainted among the tea things. I suppose I shan't be able to decide about the state of my feelings until I've had more of them on the same subject or until I've written down in this book of mine everything exactly as it's happened. I like doing that; it makes things seem so clear when you try to review them afterwards. The excitement began at breakfast by Mother having a letter that she liked. I knew she liked it by the way her eyes lighted up as if they had been lamps and the letter a match. All the other letters mostly with horrid tradesmanly-looking envelopes which had been making her quite glowy; she pushed aside. Mother won't have a crown on her envelopes; she thinks it's vulgar besides putting it only on the paper saves expense. This envelope had a great sprawly gold crest but she didn't seem to disapprove of it. She read on and on then suddenly glanced up as if she would have said something quickly to Victoria; she didn't say it though for she remembered me. I am never taken into family conclaves because I'm not out yet. I don't see what difference that makes especially as I'm not to be allowed to come out till after Vic's married because she was presented four years ago and isn't even engaged yet so for all I can tell I may have to stay in till I'm a hundred or leak out slowly when nobody is noticing as Vic says girls do in the middle classes. This time I didn't mind however for I couldn't see how the letter concerned me and as I was dying for a sight of Berengaria's puppies which were born last night I was glad when Mother told me not to fidget after I'd finished breakfast but to run down to the kennels if I liked.
