The Lilac Fairy Book Andrew Lang, 2011-06 Nobody really wrote most of the stories People told them in all parts of the world long before Egyptian hieroglyphics or Cretan signs or Cyprian syllabaries or alphabets were invented They are older than reading and writing and arose like wild flowers before men had any education to quarrel over The grannies told them to the grandchildren and when the grandchildren became grannies they repeated the same old tales to the new generation Homer knew the stories and made up the Odyssey out of half a dozen of them All the history of Greece till about 800 B C is a string of the fairy tales all about Theseus and Heracles and Oedipus and Minos and Perseus is a Cabinet des F es a collection of fairy tales Shakespeare took them and put bits of them into King Lear and other plays he could not have made them up himself great as he was Let ladies and gentlemen think of this when they sit down to write fairy tales and have them nicely typed and send them to Messrs Longman you can only mix up and dress up the old old stories and put the characters into new dresses as Miss Thackeray did so well in Five Old Friends If any big girl of fourteen reads this preface let her insist on being presented with Five Old Friends
