Much progress has been made since the green paper Every child matters change for children Cm 5860 2003 ISBN 9780101586023 the Children Act 2004 ISBN 9780105431046 and Working together to safeguard children 2006 ISBN 9780112711872 but in March 2008 37 000 children were the subjects of care orders and 29 000 children were the subject of child protection plans. 55 children were killed by their parents or by someone known to them in 2007/08. Lord Laming proposes immediate action on six tasks: 1 the setting of explicit strategic priorities for the protection of children and young persons for each of the key frontline services; 2 establishing a powerful National Safeguarding Delivery Unit to bring coherence and drive to implement change in departments and agencies whose work is to protect children; 3 addressing the inadequacy of the training and supply of frontline social workers without the necessary specialist knowledge and skills; social workers must not be allowed to practise in child protection; 4 health service workers must engage more and more confidently with child protection work; 5 resources devoted to police child protection teams and their training must be increased; 6 shortening of the time taken in court processes relating to the care of children. A total of 58 recommendations are made in the areas of leadership and accountability support for children interagency working children's workforce improvement and challenge organisation and finance legal matters.

Brockliss, Heather Montgomery, 2010 This text is divided into six The first four deal with different manifestations through the centuries of what would be today considered violence and neglect The fifth and sixth chapters look at the various violent and non violent strategies used by children as coping mechanisms in what to us seems a very harsh world

The Silent State Heather Brooke, 2010 Revealing that the MPs expenses scandal of Britain is merely the tip of the iceberg this title exposes the shocking and often farcical lack of transparency at various levels of government It argues that without proper access to the information that citizens pay for Britain can never be a true democracy

Baby P - It Must Never Happen Again John McShane, 2009-09-28 The tragic and violent death of 17 month old Baby P at the hands of those who were supposed to love and care for him has sickened the nation That such unimaginable cruelty could be unleashed on an innocent child and fail to be picked up on by the authorities has led to a public outcry and a media storm This is a comprehensive look at the events leading up to the death of Baby P A recent investigation has found that there was poor communication between authorities a repeated failure to take into account the child's history and inaccurate documentation of events by Haringey Council Child protection plans were heavily criticized in the inspection report for being disorganized with little analysis of the child and no clear decision making With the three perpetrators awaiting sentencing and politicians debating what can be done now and in the future the public are left angry and bewildered as just how this was allowed to happen
