The Lost Identity RITA JOSHI, 2017-12-08 Disha is a timid girl brought up by her parents as a homely quiet girl trained to be seen rather than heard She marries Giri a man her parents choose for her She goes on to be the ideal Indian wife barely questioning or rebelling and catering to the needs of her husband and an insecure mother in law Despite her constant inner conflict arising out of introspection observation and education she remains largely silent and unheard in her marriage as she was during her childhood Taunted and belittled by them her individuality slowly disappears at least to the viewer's eye Will she ever emerge out of the shadows The Lost Identity is a must read for teenagers and parents reflecting untold and little understood problems of millions of Indian girls through the protagonist Disha The House of Lost Identity Donald Corley, 2008-02-01 Fantasy tales and drawings by Donald Corley with an introduction by James Branch Cabell Born into Greatness and Lost in Identity Minister Gilbert B. Wright, 2021-02-08 YESTERDAY IS OVER IT ENDED AT MIDNIGHT It's time to wake up into the newness of Christ Jesus through relationship with your savior May the principles in this book dare to change you mindset actions and overall be enthusiastic about a lifestyle transformation Most of the church is still locked in a time warp of self-defeating behavior Therefore as a church we have become stationary and not missionary I pray that the blessing attached to this book help you to find the proper roadmap back to Christ and answer many questions you are in pursuit of It provides an overview of the complexity that we must come back to in order to build a true relationship with Christ We must not continue to hide behind the walls of the Church and faking our way through life We are using the church as a metaphor to run from life And we really have not developed a real relationship with Christ but we have switched drugs Now you have taken a hit off the new drug called church business And we're taking this new drug as a drug replacement for addictive behavior that really has not gone away Never before in the history of the church has there been a cry out from heaven for the true church to come back under subjection unto itself Not the four walls of the building I mean YOU Therefore life becomes an experiment instead of a purpose-driven life designed by God himself This book was insured by God and has a powerful healing and restoration wrapped up in every fiber Every word pierces the heart and touches the very depths of the soul Come take a journey with me as we truly confront layer by layer of how we became Born into Greatness and Lost in Identity Like Lazarus we are commanded to come forth into the newness of Christ May your life never ever be the same May the rest of your life be the best of our life in the mighty unmatched and majestic name of Jesus Amen Trauma in 20th Century Multicultural American Poetry Jamie D. Barker, 2020-02-06 In Trauma in 20th Century Multicultural American Poetry Jamie D Barker argues that by using literary trauma theory in conjunction with a reader response approach readers can gain a better understanding of how poetry can work towards building community and encouraging empowerment over oppression by establishing collectives of people who may share similar stories and experiences connected to trauma Rather than demonstrating how the poetry may fail or trying to establish what traumatic events the speaker or poet in some studies may have encountered and the significance thereof this study focuses on how the reader may find community with the ideas represented within the poem The poetry of various ethnicities are examined including African American poets Amiri Baraka and Lucille Clifton Native American poets Robin Coffee Linda Hogan and Peter Blue Cloud as well as Japanese American poets Mitsuye Yamada Keiho Soga and Lawson Fusao Inada Although many of these poets have had their poems examined in the past none have been explored through this type of approach Furthermore very few studies have expanded upon the ideas of literary trauma theory by using reader response and no writings have examined the idea of ambivalence in poetry as this study does *The Law Times Reports of Cases Decided in the House of Lords, the Privy Council, the Court of Appeal ...
