Look What God Did for Our Marriage Sheryl Foulk Rogers-Ramirez, 2008-09 This story begins in 1991 when Sheryl meets her second husband named Richard Her expectations are different than they were for her first marriage That said she never dreams that it will become so awful Unfortunately physical abuse is a part of the story Divorce seems a clear and almost certain option Sheryl has always believed that God helps those who help themselves which is not biblical Like most people she believes it is up to her to fix herself and her marriage But nothing she does works The level of desperation is tremendous a desperation that Sheryl has rarely experienced But then God Sheryl finally turns everything over to God God steps in and wow the old ugly marriage dies and what is left is better than a dream come true Everything is brand new squeaky clean and joyful Jesus was is and always will be the center the bottom the top and both sides There really is no life without Christ Jesus

Improvisation Samuel Wells, 2004-09-01 In Improvisation Samuel Wells defines improvisation in the theater as a practice through which actors seek to develop trust in themselves and one another in order that they may conduct unscripted dramas without fear Sounds a lot like life doesn't it Building trust overcoming fear conducting relationships and making choices all without a script Wells establishes theatrical improvisation as a model for Christian ethics a matter of faithfully improvising on the Christian tradition He views the Bible not as a script but as a training school that shapes the habits and practices of the Christian community Drawing on scriptural narratives and church history Wells explains six practices that characterize both improvisation and Christian ethics His model of improvisation reinforces the goal of Christian ethics to teach Christians to embody their faith in the practices of discipleship all the time
