Louis Farrakhan Study Guide 18:

Educational Leadership and Louis Farrakhan Abul Pitre, 2017-02-08 Drawing from Louis Farrakhan's decades of teaching on education and leadership this volume brings his ideas into the educational leadership discourse. It explores through a critical framework the purpose of education disclosing how those in powerful positions have shaped educational policy to use schools and universities for their benefit. The book inspires educational leaders to serve the best interest of those under their leadership. In a spiritual tone it discusses the purpose of education leadership as love servant leadership, transformative leadership and futuristic leadership. In the 21st century leadership for social justice has become a major theme and in this volume Louis Farrakhan's many years of working for equal justice on behalf of historically underserved groups is applied to the practice of educational leadership in K-12 and higher education.

The Nation of Islam, Louis Farrakhan, and the Men Who Follow Him Dawn-Marie Gibson, 2016-06-15 This book examines the varied ways in which Minister Farrakhan's Resurrected Nation of Islam appeals to men from different backgrounds. Dawn Marie Gibson investigates a number of themes including faith, family and community making use of archival research and engaging in depth interviews. The book considers the multifaceted ways in which men encounter the Nation of Islam (NOI) and navigate its ethics and gender norms. Gibson describes and dissects the factors that attract men to the NOI while also considering the challenges that these men confront as new converts. She discusses the various interfaith and community outreach efforts that men engage in and assesses their work with both their Christian and Muslim counterparts. To conclude its discussion the book takes a look at the NOI's 2015 Justice or Else March to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the Million Man March in Washington DC.

Elijah Muhammad and Supreme Literacy Lydia Magras Muhammad, 2022-03-08 Elijah Muhammad and the Supreme of Literacy explores how Elijah Muhammad framed the term literacy as contrasted with its generally known definitions and applications. The text frames a construct for understanding why Elijah Muhammad considered the science of literacy essential to the success of the Blackman and woman in America specifically and people in general. It outlines the scriptural foundations of Muhammad's teachings drawn from both Bible and Qur'an. A detailed review of the course of study prescribed for his followers supplies Elijah Muhammad's unique perspective on both literacy and language. Examples of his study curricula are offered. A brief history of Muhammad's own educational process is presented with an emphasis on the pedagogy of literacy as practiced by Muhammad's teacher W. D. Fard. Material on the early educational focus of The Nation of Islam is introduced. And finally general commentary on the teachings is made known through the lenses of three men in their role as teachers: W. D. Fard, teacher of Elijah Muhammad; Muhammad himself; and Minister Louis Farrakhan, student of Elijah Muhammad.

Study Guides Louis Farrakhan, 1986 Islamic Impostors Poray Sr. Casimier, 2004-07 From the obscure beginnings of a 1930s ghetto in Detroit to international acclaim, Black Muslims have evoked fright, mystery and hostility. The Nation of Islam received little attention from the black Christian church despite its blatantly blasphemous teachings. In weekly radio broadcasts Elijah Muhammad taught that his doctrine was superior to the Bible and Quran his mentor was the Messiah God spoken of in Scripture and Jesus died in front of a Jewish storefront and remains buried in Jerusalem From the early 1980s Louis Farrakhan has taught Elijahs doctrine with one major difference he stands in the pulpits of Christian churches mesmerizing the biblically illiterate Islamic Impostors carefully details the irreconcilable differences between Christians Black Muslims and Islam while providing a biblical critique to aid the Christian church Closing the Gap ,2006
