The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs, 2015-12-16 Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 480 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development scholars and students in North America and worldwide

Contesting Precarity in Japan Saori Shibata, 2020-07-15 Contesting Precarity in Japan details the new forms of workers protest and opposition that have developed as Japan's economy has transformed over the past three decades and highlights their impact upon the country's policymaking process Drawing on a new dataset charting protest events from the 1980s to the present Saori Shibata produces the first systematic study of Japan's new precarious labour movement It details the movement's rise during Japan's post bubble economic transformation and highlights the different and innovative forms of dissent that mark the end of the country's famously non confrontational industrial relations In doing so moreover she shows how this new pattern of industrial and social tension is reflected within the country's macroeconomic policymaking resulting in a new policy dissensus that has consistently failed to offer policy reforms that would produce a return to economic growth As a result Shibata argues that the Japanese model of capitalism has therefore become increasingly disorganized Automotive News ,2007 Finweek ,2007 Finance Week ,2005 F & S Index United States Annual ,2007 Ward's Motor Vehicle Facts & Figures ,2007 The Weekly Japan Digest ,2003 Standard & Poor's Creditweek ,2008 Ibadan Journal of the Social Sciences ,2009 Ward's Automotive Yearbook ,2007 Includes advertising matter The Harbour Report ,2007 APICS, the Performance Advantage ,2005 International Directory of Company Histories Tina Grant,Thomas Derdak,2004-09 Provides detailed histories of many of the largest and most influential companies worldwide Intended for reference use by students business persons librarians historians economists investors job candidates and others who want to learn more about the historical development of the world s most important companies Chicago Tribune Index ,2005 The Economist ,2004 AutoAsia ,1999
